Navigation Satellite Rocketed Into Orbit

Planned Transit 5A Network Will Enable Ocean Vessels To Plot Their Position Quickly

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (AP)—Transit 5A, the guiding star satellite which rocketed skyward with a brilliance visible for hundreds of miles, gave out a steady signal from its polar orbit today.

The signal will help ships and submarines determine their positions more accurately.

Seconds after Transit 5A's launch at 5:26 p.m. PST Tuesday, the colorful trail of the satellite's rocket booster reflected the setting sun's rays like colored skywriting.

It was seen by hundreds from San Diego to San Francisco, Calif., and one observer 900 miles away said he saw a glow in the sky at launch time.

The 140-pound satellite was launched atop the four-stage, solid-fuel Blue Scout rocket by the Air Force for the Navy. It went into orbit an hour and a half later.

First of Two

It was the first of two space vehicles launched from here within hours. A space probe, also utilizing a Blue Scout unit, was launched Tuesday night.

The Air Force did not reveal the payload of the second or the nature of its mission.

Transit 5A is the first of a four-satellite network which by the end of 1963 should enable ships anywhere in the world to fix their positions quickly, in any kind of weather.

Such information is particularly vital to Polaris-launching submarines which must know their positions precisely before firing their missiles.

Current celestial navigation techniques require clear skies.

A brilliant fireball lit up the sky as the setting sun's rays bounced off the rocket while its third stage was ignited at 330,000 feet.

Budget Studies Draw Reynolds To Milwaukee

Vocational School Seeks $3 Million Hike in Funds

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The travels of Governor-elect John W. Reynolds in his on-the-spot budget studies took him to Milwaukee Vocational School and the workshops of the State Services of the Blind Tuesday.

One member of the Reynolds party described the building housing the workshop of the blind as a "firetrap."

Wilbur Schmidt, director of the Department of Welfare, whose agency supervises the activities of the blind, said replacement of the building has a high priority in the department's building program.

Schmidt said that should the 1963 Legislature fail to approve the $700,000 requested for the new building, the department may attempt to buy or lease an existing factory building. The existing building produces hemp mats, machine works and rugs.

The inspection of the Vocational School was part of the budget presentation by the State Board of Vocational and Adult Education. The Milwaukee school receives more than 10 per cent of its operating revenue from the state.

Clarence L. Greiber, administrator of the vocational and adult education program, outlined a budget for the next biennium of $6,724,799, or $2,700,000 more than the appropriation for the present two years.

Greiber said that 80 per cent of the increase is intended for greater state aid to local schools.

Pope John Looking Forward to Christmas

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII, at a general audience for 1,500 persons, looked forward today to Christmas and said the holiday "should bring joy even for those who suffer."

The 81-year-old Roman Catholic ruler, convalescing from a serious stomach disorder and anemia, seemed vigorous as he walked among those attending the audience and talked of the holiday season.

Many at the audience said the pope appeared thin and pale, but that his step was firm, his voice strong and his words encouraging.

Negro Will Fill Ambassadorial Post at U.N.

Carl T. Rowan Would Serve on Trustee Council

BY MILT FREUDENHEIM
Chicago Daily News Service

UNITED NATIONS — President Kennedy plans to appoint Carl T. Rowan as American spokesman here on anticolonial questions with the rank of Ambassador.

Rowan, 37, Undersecretary of State for Public Affairs, made headlines when the exclusive Washington Cosmos Club refused him membership because he is a Negro.

U. S. Ambassador to India John K. Galbraith and other Kennedy Administration officials resigned from the Club in protest. The Club recently changed its policy and accepted as a member Prof. John Hope Franklin, noted Negro historian.

A former award-winning newspaperman with the Minneapolis Tribune, Rowan would replace Jonathan Bingham as U. S. representative on the U. N. Trusteeship Council and on the special committee on ending colonialism.

Bingham is moving into the post as economic spokesman left vacant when Ambassador Philip Klutznick resigned to return to private business in Chicago.

Rowan also stirred controversy with a speech strongly attacking United Nations efforts to unify the Congo, at a time when American policy on the Congo was in doubt. President Kennedy has since decided on the policy advocated by Rowan and others.

Naval Veteran

Born in Ravenscroft, Tenn., Rowan served in the Navy in World War II, becoming at 19 one of the first 12 Negroes in Navy history to become an officer.

Recipient of a master's degree in journalism from the University of Minnesota, he won awards for his reporting in Asia and Africa.

U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce chose him one of the Emerald America's "10 Outstanding Young Men of 1953."

President Kennedy appointed Rowan an alternate delegate to the current session of the U. N. Assembly. He would be the first Negro to hold a high post on the Chief Delegate Ambassador Adlai Stevenson.

Kennedy, Macmillan Reception of Leaders Includes Calypso Salute

BY FRANK CORMIER
NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—President Kennedy popped in at a cocktail party Tuesday night while Prime Minister Macmillan dropped in on a barbecue—and drank beer.

Nassau's reception for the two world leaders also included a calypso salute at the beach barbecue.

Kennedy wasn't there, but the British prime minister smiled and studied the printed lyrics as the calypso singer Count Bernadino sang his special calypso:

"To Mr. Kennedy greetings and salutation
"For the way you handled the Cuban situation.
"As the President of the United States you've given the whole world aid.
"I hope some day you buy Castro a razor blade."
The count had these words for Macmillan:
"We salute you and England all your cabinet,
"And wish you good luck with the Common Market.
"Nassau wishes you the best in every discussion you have.
"I am so happy you didn't bring Khrushchev."

The social forays by Kennedy and Macmillan were unscheduled. Kennedy ventured forth first, making a handshaking circuit of the guests at a poolside cocktail party given for correspondents covering the conference. The President stayed about 10 minutes.

Macmillan turned up nearly two hours later at a barbecue on the Emerald Beach Hotel, where many members of the official parties and newsmen are staying.

He watched native dancers en-

Man Denies Two Idaho Slayings

BOISE (AP)—Theodore Thomas Dickie has told newsmen he told Air Force agents a false story about two Mountain Home Idaho murders because it was "what they wanted to hear."

The 22-year-old laborer, formerly of Marinette, Wis., referred Tuesday night to a story he told two agents on Dec. 7, saying he went to the home of Nancy J. Johnson the night of April 9, found her and her son slain and Airman Gerald M. Anderson sitting in another room, sobbing.

"I gave them a big old spiel," Dickie told Rick Raphael, the man to whom he first confessed the slayings. "I told them I walked into the house and seen Anderson and this is what they wanted to hear."

Dickie, who later told agents both the revised story and his earlier story saying he was the slayer, said he got the impression the agents "wanted to get Anderson for something."

To Raphael, Dickie reaffirmed earlier confessions to the slayings, accepted by a civil court which freed Anderson.

The agents told of Dickie's story identifying Anderson as the slayer in a military hearing which

Dominican Republic's Church-Political Rift Now Appears Mended

Priest Publicly Withdraws Charge That Candidate Was Marxist

BY DON BONAFEDE
Chicago Daily News Service

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic — Presidential candidate Juan Bosch paid a midnight visit to the residence of the Papal Nuncio in his dispute with the Church that almost postponed the election here.

Bosch knocked on the open doors of the residence Sunday night about 11:30 and talked for an hour and 15 minutes with Emmanuel Clarizio, the Pope's emissary here.

Bosch demanded that the Church withdraw charges he claims were made by some rural priests that he was a Marxist. The priest and the politician debated the issue while seated in a big salon beneath oil paintings of Popes.

Finally, Bosch was politely informed by the Holy See's representative that even if some priests had spoken against him, they would not be speaking for the Church.

"Only the Bishops speak in the name of the Church," he was told.

Bosch suggested that the Church perhaps offer a mass in the cause of a peaceful election, and in that way indicate its neutrality. This was declined as superfluous.

Bosch left, and then issued his statement that he was pulling out of the country. He charged that Spanish Jesuits, including some ordered out of Cuba by Fidel Castro, were telling the rural electorate not to vote for Bosch because he was a Communist.

It is among the peasants that Bosch, candidate of the Dominican Revolutionary party is most popular.

Close Rival

A week ago, Dominicans generally agreed that he held an edge over his closest rival, Dr. Viriato Fiallo, of the National Civic Union.

However Bosch and a Catholic priest, the Rev. Lautico Garcia, publicly debated on television and radio Monday night. The priest publicly withdrew a charge that Bosch was a "Marxist-Leninist."

Bosch, who has vehemently denied any Communist ties, said he was satisfied with the young priest's retraction.

Thus, the Church - political crisis that threatened this country's first free election in 38 years appeared resolved.

The government proceeded with plans for the election. Between 800,000 and 1,000,000 citizens 18 years of age and over are eligible to vote.

High Catholic clergy infer that Bosch used the Church issue as a red herring.

Said one priest, "Bosch's party started last week by saying they would be attacked. If it were true, how would they know in advance."

"Then they gave us some names of priests, reportedly speaking against Bosch. We checked them out and found they were speaking against Communism, not Bosch."

"Next, they announced that the Bishops were preparing a pastoral letter. This was impossible because the Bishops were in Rome attending the Ecumenical conference and returned home only a few days ago."

"They then said that a bloody revolution would result unless they were cleared by the Church. We told them that is the expression of other people, not democrats."

Bosch, who has kept his visit to the Papal Nuncio a secret, has said that the Papal Nuncio is an "unpenetrable wall."

Santa Claus Truly Lived Long Ago; His Real Name Was St. Nicholas

BY CHARLES HOUSE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

This is a true story. It is the story of Santa Claus. You are big enough now to know the truth.

A long, long, long time ago (nearly 2,000 years) a baby was born in a city named Patara which is in a place called Asia Minor.

House

The baby was like other babies. He laughed some and he cried some and everybody said he was cute just as they say about all babies. The only thing different about this baby was that he was going to grow up and become the really truly Santa Claus.

The baby's mother and father were nice people. His father had a funny name. It was Epiphaneas. His mother had a pretty name. It was Joanna. Joanna and Epiphaneas decided to name their baby "Nicholas." They didn't name him Santa Claus because "Santa Claus" is not a real name. It is a fun name and I will tell you about it in a little while.

I wonder what his mother and father called him. Maybe they called him "Nick."

Well, Nick started to grow from a baby to a boy. People said he was a very good boy.

Once again this column is reprinted by popular request. It is directed to those children who ask the annual question, "Is there a Santa Claus?" The average age of disbelief is 8. Parents may wish to read this article to those children who seek the truth.

I don't know if he was better than you are, but I think he was just as good. He was very kind. Every year he tried to be a better boy than he had been the year before.

The years passed the way they always do and then Nick was a young man. He was such a nice young man that some people asked him if he would work in the church to sort of help people when they needed help. Nick said he would. He did his work so well that soon he became the head of the church.

Nick a Christ-ian

Nick lived near a place where Christ had lived long before. Everybody around there knew about Christ and they loved him. Christ had taught people that they should be good and not to hurt people or be mean to them. And the people who followed the teachings of Christ were called Christ-ians.

Nick was a Christ-ian. When people came to his church he helped them to understand the things which Christ wanted them to do. And Nick helped everybody he could. The reason was that he loved people.

But even better than that Nick loved children even more than he loved big people. He tried to make children happy.

Becomes a Bishop

Then one day Nick was chosen to be the leader in a big church in a big city called Myra. The head of the church was called "bishop" so Nick was called Bishop Nicholas.

One of the things Bishop Nicholas liked to do best of all was to travel far away from his own city which was a warm place. Sometimes he would go far, far away into the north. Would you like to know how he dressed when he went into the cold country of the north?

Well, mostly bishops wear red, and Nick did, too. But when he was in the cold north country he also wore some fur on his red clothes.

He wore a red hat with white fur trimming on it. He wore white trimming on his red coat, too. Who do you think he looked like? Santa Claus?

Traveled by Sled

Nick had to use a big sled to travel with because he always carried packages of presents with him over all that snow. He wanted to give the presents to people and he couldn't carry them all on his back.

What do you think Nick used for pulling his big sled? Well, he used reindeer because reindeer are very good at walking on ice and snow.

But one day a very sad thing happened. Nick had grown to be a very old man and so he died. But people remembered how nice he was to children. They thought of him as a saint because a saint is about the nicest kind of person you could know.

Saint Nick died on Dec. 6 in a year numbered 343 which is exactly 1,619 years ago.

After Saint Nick died people missed him so much that they asked each other a question. The question was "Who will take his place?" They wanted someone to take his place so that little children would not miss him and be sorry that he had died.

So—because everybody in the world likes to see children be happy — there were some different people who dressed themselves up to look like Saint Nick. They dressed as he had dressed and they would visit little children and give them presents, just like the real Saint Nick. They were nice people to do that. They wanted the little children to be happy.

It was not very many years after that that the wonderful secret of Saint Nick had spread to many other places in the world. And in every one of these places, there was always some nice person who would take the place of the real Saint Nick and give candy and nice things to the children. But only in our country is he called Santa Claus.

The reason we call him Santa Claus is a funny reason. It is because the people in our country learned about Saint Nick from some other people who were very, very, very, very, very old Dutch. Dutch people speak a language which is different from ours. When they want to say "Saint Nicholas" they say it like this—Saint Nicholas.

Now I am going to stop my story for a while so you can try to say — very fast — "Saint he got the fun name we call him.

Well, Now you know that there was once a really truly Santa Claus. But you know that he could not live to be so old as 1,619 years because he would then be very, very, very, very, very old. Wouldn't he?

But when you were little, your mother and father helped you to think there was a really truly Santa Claus because they know it is a wonderful way to make children happy. Mothers and fathers are right when they try to do things that will make you glad. Now you are older and you are big enough to have the secret told to you because now you can help to make other little children happy. You know the secret!

It is a wonderful secret to know. And it is the story of the really truly Santa Claus, and of all the people who made believe there is a Santa Claus just because it makes children happy.

Drugs Proven Useful in Treating Mental Illnesses

Science Reports Tranquilizers Have Great Beneficial Impact

BY ALTON BLAKESLEE
NEW YORK (AP)—The devil still talks to me," she said, "but I don't bother to holler back." Thus did a tranquilizer drug bring one woman a ticket back toward mental health. From then on, she could cooperate with psychiatrists to work out an understanding of her emotional illness. The "mood drugs" such as tranquilizers to calm excited minds and psychic stimulants to combat depression, are part of an exciting chemical era in mental illness. There are two great objectives. One is to develop far more effective drugs for various types of mental illness. The other is increasing if controversial, evidence that much mental illness may stem from faulty body chemistry. If specific chemical errors could be pinpointed they probably could be corrected to prevent or cure mental illness. Psychiatrists are divided over prospects of such chemical tools. Tranquilizers, coming on the scene about eight years ago, and antidepressants, are having tremendous impact. Men and women sick for months or years have described the mental effects as the lifting of a curtain or cloud or brightening of a dark room. Drugs have provided a bridge to home for many thousands of depressed people. Some say equally good or better results are obtained with intensive psychiatric treatment of patients.

Third of Series

Less Convinced
Other psychiatrists are less convinced of the value of drugs—some 20 different tranquilizers and more than a dozen antidepressants are available now. Some say equally good or better results are obtained with intensive psychiatric treatment of patients. But certain other drugs such as mescaline and LSD actually produce hallucinations or other symptoms of severe mental illness in healthy persons—more reason to suspect that faulty body chemistry could be the reason for at least some types of mental illness. In another sign, scientists have found abnormal chemicals or abnormal amounts of regular body chemicals in the blood and urine of schizophrenic patients. Whether these are the result or possible cause of mental illness is not yet known. Avoid Trouble
A few conditions now are known in which an inherited chemical defect or dietary deficiency types of patients and when causes mental retardation in children. Damage is avoided if the trouble is detected in time. And studies of twins indicate that some people may inherit a vulnerability to schizophrenia, the special stresses do adolescents fight from "reality" which constitute the major type of serious mental illness. In the traditional view, mental illness is born from breakdown in human relationships, or from extreme emotional stress. The Research dollars are tremendous—wounded mind may withdraw, or turn to behavior relieving its stress and pain. Some scientists believe mental illness is a result of both environmental reactions and faulty chemistry. Psychotherapy presents puzzles. It is a method of listening to patients and helping them discover reasons for their behavior and new insights. There are many approaches. But psychiatrists do not under but admit to the shortage of psychiatrists.

The National Institute of Mental Health has set up the Psychopharmacology Service Center to speed the screening and testing of new compounds.
To many researchers a great encouraging fact is that mood drugs do affect the brain even though the mechanisms are not fully understood.
Selle was granted Huber law privileges and was ordered to begin payment to the county welfare department for back support payments.
Selle waived a preliminary hearing when he appeared in Outagamie County Court, Branch 2. stand how it works, or why one method helps some patients, but not others. It is difficult to prove conclusively that psychotherapy works at all.
Yet thousands of persons obviously are relieved of their distress and manage to resume useful lives. Psychotherapy itself is a target of research to determine which methods are best for what types of patients and when. Researchers are exploring other questions.
What goes wrong in our ways of rearing children that so many become emotionally ill? What stresses do adolescents undergo and how can they be handled? What are the full causes of juvenile delinquency? Can a predisposition to schizophrenia be detected, and preventive measures in human relationships, or from extreme emotional stress. The Research dollars are tremendous—wounded mind may withdraw, or turn to behavior relieving its stress and pain. Some scientists believe mental illness is a result of both environmental reactions and faulty chemistry. Psychotherapy presents puzzles. It is a method of listening to patients and helping them discover reasons for their behavior and new insights. There are many approaches. But psychiatrists do not under

Dominating News Industry ITU Goal

Outcome of New York Strike Could Shape Newspapers Future

BY DARDEN CHAMBLISS

NEW YORK (AP)—The future of the newspaper industry — and other publishing ventures — could be shaped by the outcome of the strike which has shut nine New York daily newspapers since Dec. 8.

The strike is being led by Local 6 of the International Typographical Union.

It has led to the belief in many quarters that the main goal of the strike is not just higher wages and other benefits but an effort by the ITU to make itself the dominant union in the rapidly changing newspaper industry.

For many years the ITU had this position, then lost it to the American Newspaper Guild — an organization of reporters, noncraft and clerical workers which the printers, by example and urging, had helped foster. In recent years it found itself following contract patterns set by the Guild.

If the strike is in fact a go-for-broke bid by the ITU, many publishers say it could tear the economic fabric of an industry which they claim is already under serious stress.

The possible industrywide implications have drawn special attention to the strike, which, involving combined circulation of almost six million, is big enough in its own right.

Long Island Edition

The union struck the New York Times, the Daily News, the Journal-American and the World-Telegram & Sun. Then the Post, Mirror, Herald Tribune, Long Island Star-Journal and Long Island press shut as members of the New York Publishers' Association. The Long Island Press is continuing to publish its Long Island editions.

Nearly 20,000 people are out of work, lost wages amount to about $3 million a week and lost revenue during the rich pre-Christmas advertising season, is estimated by the industry at $7 million a week.

The antagonists in the dispute are resolute.

Bertram Powers, 40, with brushed, blond-gray hair, the president of Local 6, says "We're in this thing all the way."

Amory Bradford, 50, with salt-and-pepper hair and a hard-finished tweed suit, vice president of the Times and head of the publishers' negotiating committee, says "We are within a very short step of our absolute limit."

Treads Footsteps

For a decade now in New York, the ITU has found itself treading the footsteps of a union it helped bring into being in the 1930s. ITU men had told reporters, clerical workers and other noncraft workers that they would have to organize if they hoped to get the kind of money and contract protections ITU men enjoyed.

They took the advice and formed the Guild. But in the early 1950s, in part because of an accident on a level with Whiting Field. Because of the unusual site, it will be possible to landscape the stadium extensively, avoiding the bare look usually associated with such a facility.

President Knight commented: "This distinguished gift plays a most important part of our current program to match the Ford Foundation grant to Lawrence. Beyond that, however, it also meets a long-standing college need, as any enthusiastic supporter of football can testify."

"All of us, including the anonymous donor whose great generosity has made this gift possible, recognize that the academic needs of the college must always come first in our planning. It is quite proper for our progress in this area to be matched by equal progress in our athletic facilities, however, and we are deeply grateful for the foresight and careful planning which have made so major a gift possible."

Athletic Director Bernard E. Heselson said: "This is great news. A stadium in our natural bowl has long been a dream of alumni, players and coaches. Teams and spectators alike have suffered on windswept Whiting Field.

"This reaffirms Lawrence's philosophy of an all-around educational program of which athletics is an integral part. Just as important, it will clear Whiting Field for expansion in our athletic and physical education programs. This does not mean a change in our philosophy of athletics or football in particular."

new bridge was constructed, reduced the hoped-for parking area. Both of these limitations can be overcome, it is felt.

Earliest plans called for the floor of the bowl to be raised just high enough to clear the seasonal stream. More recently it has been decided to raise the ravine floor considerably, so the topmost seats are on a level with Whiting Field. Because of the unusual site, it will be possible to landscape the stadium extensively, avoiding the bare look usually associated with such a facility.

Miss Emma Cluss, La Crosse, Will Mark 100th Birthday

LA CROSSE (AP)—With the newspapers she reads providing a keen interest in the future and her experiences giving her a vivid insight into the past, Miss Emma Cluss of La Crosse will celebrate her 100th birthday Wednesday.

Miss Cluss was born in Milwaukee Dec. 19, 1862. Two years later the family moved to Brownsville, Minn., and since 1915, when her mother died, she has lived here.

After the snow storm came a freezing rain. Horses and carriages had no problems, she recalls but the horseless carriages were stuck.

No birthday celebration has been planned for Miss Cluss who spends most of her days reading newspapers, magazines and books. She plans to go right on, following the news as she begins her second century of living.

would be released on delivery of 20 per cent of the amount demanded and a pledge for the balance.

The Air Transport Association, an organization of aviation executives, said eight domestic airlines were cooperating to transport 600,000 pounds of supplies to Florida at the request of the Red Cross.

Freighter Loaned

Eight trucking firms were moving 420,000 pounds of supplies to Opa-Locka free of charge.

The 435-foot freighter African Pilot, loaned by the Farrell Lines to the Red Cross, was steaming to Port Everglades, Fla., to pick up the load if the exchange is completed. Fifteen shipping companies had combined to finance the water transportation.

Paul Willis, president of the Grocery Manufacturers Association, said his organization had taken charge of soliciting food from manufacturers and "the response has been very generous."

The Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association coordinated drug donations.

U.S. State Department sources said Donovan and the families committee had been quite successful in soliciting drug donations.

tacks meetings today and Thursday.

Earlier the two leaders conferred with their aides on matters to be discussed. These include the future of the Skybolt missile.

Britain has based her nuclear deterrent hopes on American development of the Skybolt, a long-range missile designed to be fired from bombers at targets a thousand miles away. President Kennedy has intimated he has decided against continuing development of the missile because of test failures so far and the prospective cost. He is said to acknowledge Britain needs some alternative to the missile, and a search for that is part of his purpose here.

Important Session

Kennedy, U.S. sources say, regards this meeting with the British leader as the most important of all the six he has had with Macmillan since he was elected president.

The reason for this is not only the urgency of the Skybolt problem—which is threatening Macmillan's political position at home—but also because of the whole range of pressing cold war problems.

The Kennedy-Macmillan discussions also will touch on such subjects as the Soviet-Red Chinese rift, the Chinese-Indian conflict, various problems of the NATO alliance, including the attitude of France and the growing sentiment for an independent European nuclear potential, the meaning of Soviet economic troubles, and problems involving the European Common Market.

and Prime Minister Macmillan said U.S. leaders fear a new Kremlin attempt to extend Soviet influence into the Congo if the continued secession of Katanga results in the fall of Premier Cyrille Adoula's moderate central Congo government.

Study Military Situation

The sources in Nassau said Truman's group will survey the military situation in the Congo as well as the equipment needs of the U.N. force.

Thant's call for U.S. aid came as the chief of his Congo mission, Robert K. A. Gardiner, hastened to U.N. headquarters to discuss the explosive situation caused by attempts to bring Katanga and the central government together.

The U.N. has more than 12,000 troops in the Congo, but India wants to pull out her contingent of more than 5,000 because of her border conflict with Red China.

Troops of the big powers have been barred from the U.N. Congo force so far to prevent the area becoming a cold-war battle ground.

Truman, 54, a cousin of former President Harry S. Truman, is a 1932 graduate of West Point.

Neenah and Menasha, long-standing Mid-Eastern Conference rivals, will have double incentives for victory when they clash on the Neenah High School court Friday night.

Both teams are involved in a 4-way tie for second place and a victory is vital in any title aspirations either may have. As if this would not be incentive enough, there is always the prestige the other will take off the floor with a victory in this long rivalry.

Mid-Eastern activity is split this week as action opens tonight with New London and Kaukauna, both winless in three league starts, will meet on the Kaukauna hardwood. Other Friday night encounters in addition to the Rocky - Bluejay clash will see Kimberly visiting Clintonville and unbeaten Two Rivers invading tough Shawano.

Average 66 Points
Neenah takes the second best offensive average in the conference into the Menasha game. The Rockets, paced by Dick Rogers and Dave Neubauer, are averaging just about 66 points per game. By way of contrast, Menasha will take the floor tied with Shawano for the loop's best defensive mark. The "Jays" have limited foes to a 47-points per game mark.

Rogness and Neubauer are currently running 2-3 in the M-E scoring race with 51 and 48 points, respectively. Tom Wagner of Shawano, defending scoring champ, is leading with 61 markers in three games.

Neenah is still smarting from the 64-63 setback suffered at the hands of Menasha in sub-regional tournament play last season. The Bluejays, who had been struggling through a dismal season and had been drubbed by the Rockets on two previous occasions in regular play, rose to the occasions and upset the Rockets.

Two Rivers, which has wheeled to three straight wins, including an opening triumph over Neenah, may be walking into a hornets' nest.

Machen May Have Written End to Career

No. 1 Contender Committed to State Mental Hospital

FAIRFIELD, Calif. (AP)—When boxer Eddie Machen parked his car Dec. 12 and began writing a note to explain why he wanted to kill himself, he may have written the ending of his fighting career.

Chances for his hope of a try in the foreseeable future at heavyweight champion Sonny Liston's title appeared gloomy Tuesday when Machen was committed to a state hospital for the mentally ill.

The 30-year-old contender—rated No. 1 heavyweight challenger by the World Boxing Association—was committed after a brief Superior Court hearing. Napa State Hospital doctors described Machen as an "acute schizophrenic" and a "paranoid" in need of treatment and dangerous to himself and others.

At nearly the same time, Jack Urch, executive officer of the state athletic commission, said Machen's California boxing license expires Dec. 31.

"Obviously he's not going to fight before the end of this year," Urch said.

Complete Clearance
Before Machen could be issued a new license, Urch said, the athletic commission would require a complete medical clearance. "We just don't know," said Kenneth Gray, special investigator for the commission. "We don't know how these things will affect a person's boxing career."

Urch said it was the first time in California's history — to his knowledge — that a boxer had been committed to a hospital for mental health reasons.

Machen was taken to the Napa State Hospital for observation and his own protection after a state highway patrolman found him in a car parked near Vallejo. The boxer was writing what was described as a "farewell letter" to his wife, Charlotte, and had a loaded pistol in the car.

Machen told officers he was depressed because of financial troubles stemming from his difficulty in getting a worthwhile fight. "Everything was all wrong," officers quoted him as saying.

His commitment was for an indefinite period—"until his mental well-being is restored." Doctors at the hearing would not commit themselves on how long this could be.

Dr. Roy Wagner, Napa Hospital psychiatrist, testified that Machen was depressed and quiet when he was admitted there. Since then, however, the psychiatrist said, Machen has become violent twice and knocked out two attendants.

Dr. Wagner said Machen was given heavy doses of tranquilizers.

Another Napa doctor said it would be dangerous to release the boxer to a private mental institution for treatment.

Beloit Cagers Hand Lawrence Its First League Defeat, 82-73

Topple Vikes From Lead; Hendrichs, Ungrodt Top Scoring

BY DON LEMKE

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

BELOIT — A slow leak was started in the Lawrence College basketball huddle Tuesday night. Beloit, playing before a wildly enthusiastic home crowd, did the honors. The Bucs handed the Vikings an 82-73 setback, the first for Lawrence in three Mid-west Conference tests. The loss toppled the upstart Vikes from the league's top rung and left the conference with no undefeated team after three weeks of action.

It was Beloit's third win against three conference losses and the Bucs' second straight win over an undefeated league team. Beloit had blasted Ripon's unblemished mark last week.

Coach Don Boya's rejuvenated Vikings led only once (17-16) in a ragged game which was dominated by the three guards, Dave Varnado and Dave Hendrichs of Beloit and Lawrence's Joel Ungrodt. Hendrichs and Ungrodt had 25 points each and Varnado had 21.

Leads Comeback

After trailing, 38-28, at halftime, Lawrence made two comebacks in the second half. The first was a Mike Clair-directed resurgence which closed a 52-38 Beloit lead to a 55-48 count.

Clair made eight straight points in that spurt before Tom Moran took charge and restored the Bucs' 15-point margin.

Mitchell, Bears' Fourth Draftee, Signs With Denver

DENVER (AP) — Coach Jack Faulkner said Tuesday the Denver Broncos have signed Charles Mitchell, University of Washington halfback, for the next American Football League season.

He was 10th on the Broncos draft list and the fourth choice of the Chicago Bears of the National Football League.

He is 5-feet-11 and weighs 192. Mitchell will be an offensive back for the Broncos. He will play in the East-West Game at San Francisco Dec. 29 and also in the Hula Bowl.

The second comeback was in the final four minutes, Beloit had a seemingly safe 78-62 lead when the Vikes' Earl Hoover came alive. Hoover added a 3-point play to four straight free throws and the Beloit lead was suddenly only 78-69 with 2:29 to play.

Then Beloit started to stall and the dribbling wizardry of the two diminutive Buc guards, Hendrichs and Varnado, offset late baskets by Clair and Gary Just.

Despite a fine defensive team performance for the Vikings in the first half, two bad spurts hurt them. The first was in the opening moments when Lawrence, which hadn't played for 13 days, couldn't find the basket. Beloit quickly built up a 9-2 lead during that span before the Vikes were able to regroup.

Gradually, the spunky Vikings came back. They tied the score at 15-15 on a 3-point play by Hoover, went ahead with 10:40 in the half on a brace of free throws by

New Role Delights Ron VanderKelen

Badger Quarterback Makes Second Trip to Rose Bowl

BY HARVEY BREUSCHER

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin's Ron VanderKelen will return to the Rose Bowl New Year's Day as a star quarterback instead of a bench warmer.

No one is more delighted with the new role than VanderKelen himself. "This time I know I'll have a chance to play, and I'll have something to do with the way things come out," said the 23-year-old senior from Green Bay, Wis.

VanderKelen was a member of the 1959 Badger football squad that met Washington in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1960.

"I didn't play it all in that one, thank goodness," he said. "We got beat 44-8 and I guess I can say I didn't have anything to do with it."

Practice Sessions

VanderKelen's service in the 1960 meeting was limited to practice sessions. Alternating with Tom Mettlach, now an assistant trainer at Wisconsin, VanderKelen quarterbacked offensive and defensive units that squared off against the Badger regulars in pregame drills.

On the day of the game, VanderKelen wasn't summoned from his position on the Wisconsin bench. "If I wasn't on the end of the bench, I was pretty close to it because there weren't many guys left after me," he said.

VanderKelen is the only Wisconsin player preparing for a second appearance in the Rose Bowl. The opportunity fell to him when a knee injury kept him out of competition during the regular 1960 season. He dropped from school and so preserved an extra year of eligibility.

VanderKelen's rise from Rose Bowl bench warmer to starting Rose Bowl quarterback parallels the story of his entire Wisconsin football career.

MSU's Saimes Signs to Play For Buffalo

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—George Saimes, Michigan State's All-America fullback, signed Tuesday to play with the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League, it was announced here.

Saimes of Canton, Ohio, was a sixth-round draft choice of the Dallas Texans of the AFL and also the sixth-round choice of the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League.

Ralph B. Wilson Jr., owner of the Bills, said he had obtained the rights to Saimes from Dallas by agreeing to give the Texans a high-draft choice of Buffalo next season.

Saimes was the second member of Michigan State's team to sign with the Bills. The pro team signed its first draft choice, Dave Behrman, Dec. 6.

Wilson said it was at Behrman's wedding last week that Saimes told him he was interested in playing for the Bills. The sturdy fullback said he would like to play professional football closer to his home in Canton, Ohio, than on the West Coast.

Gophers' Campbell Signed by Vikings

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP)—The Minnesota Vikings announced Tuesday the signing of Minnesota end John Campbell to a professional football contract for 1963.

Campbell, 6-foot-5, 210-pounder from Wadena, Minn., was one of the Gophers' mainstays defensively and was named to The Associated Press' All-Big Ten team this fall. He is 24 years old.

Two of the Stars who will be on opposing sides in the Rose Bowl game Jan. 1 are Ron VanderKelen, bottom, Wisconsin quarterback from Green Bay, and Damon Bame, University of Southern California guard. VanderKelen was named the Big Ten's most valuable player. Bame is a 5-11 junior, who weighs 187 pounds and was named an All-American. (AP Wirephoto)

Trojans Want to Retain Top Rating, Declares Linebacker

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The nation's No. 1 college football team, the University of Southern California, is not likely to have any let-down in the Rose Bowl against Wisconsin New Year's Day.

So said 20-year-old Damon Bame, the cannon-balling linebacker and an All-American, as the Trojans continued preparations to meet the No. 2 team in the country.

Bays Dominate Statistics but Are Not Leaders

Giants Tops on Offense, Detroit Best Defensively

NEW YORK (AP)—The Green Bay Packers failed to lead the National Football League in either total offense or defense but dominated the final team statistics by finishing first in 11 offensive and four defensive categories.

The New York Giants, who meet the Packers in the league championship game, Dec. 30 at Yankee Stadium, showed the way in total offense, Detroit, which lost the Western crown although it was the only team to beat the Packers, led in total defense.

Green Bay piled up most first downs rushing (145), net yards rushing (2,400), average yards per rush (4.7), pass completion percentage (60.1), total touchdowns (53), touchdowns running (39), extra points (52) and total points (415).

Fewest Interceptions

Vince Lombardi's club also showed the way with fewest passes intercepted (12), least yards interceptions returned against (122) and most total first downs (281). The first downs set a league record, breaking the 278 set by Los Angeles in 1950.

On defense the Packers allowed the fewest points (148), the fewest first downs passing (94), the

Bays Are Relaxed After Shaking Off Title-Race Pressure

Lombardi Says Hornung Looked Good in Los Angeles Game

BY ART DALEY

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — "It's the season to be jolly."

It is and it isn't for the Packers who started enjoying the Christmas holiday Tuesday — not to mention their third straight Western Division championship.

The Bays are far from jolly over their up-coming championship game against the Giants in Yankee Stadium Dec. 30. That's a real un-jolly job and started with a squad meeting this afternoon and the opening practice Thursday morning.

The Packers arrived home Monday night, and they appeared to be greatly relieved and relaxed.

'A 1-Run Lead'
The championship race — particularly the last five games, was an exhausting experience for the Bays.

"It was like trying to protect a 1-run lead," Coach Vince Lombardi said, referring to the Lions who were within a game of the Packers the last three games.

But the Packers' ability to withstand all sorts of shocks — not to mention the actual games add flavor to the Packers' gaudy 13-1 record.

"The pressure to win has been hard for all of us but this was a great accomplishment by all 36 of those players. They did a fine job," Lombardi said, adding: "You've got to hand it to them. They were under a great strain all the time."

"You don't outclass anybody in this league. It's hard going every Sunday."

Lombardi has worked wonders — miracle is a better word — with the Packers in his four seasons, dwindling the losses from five in 1959 to four in 1960, three the National Football League in 1961 and just one in 1962. The Packers came out of the Ram game in good physical condition — plus a happy note. That would be the performance of Paul Hornung. The injured option back, who has been plagued by a knee injury, flashed some of his former speed and quickness in playing briefly.

Lombardi noted that Hornung looked the best he has since before he was hurt Oct. 14 at Minneapolis.

The Bays figure to be in top condition for the championship game and that goes for Dan Currie, who has shaken off his knee injury.

Packers Sign Lou Rettino, Of Villanova

VILLANOVA, Pa. (AP)—The Green Bay Packers, the defending National Football League champions, have signed another of their draft choices—Lou Rettino, a 225-pound Villanova University fullback.

Rettino, the Packers' eighth choice in the recent draft of college players, said Tuesday he had signed a contract for the 1963 season.

In listing his reasons for going with the Packers, he said, "First of all, they're the greatest, and the contract they offered me was very good."

He also had been drafted by the New York Titans of the American Football League and by the Hamilton Tigercats of the Canadian League.

A dean's list student, Rettino, a native of Jersey City, N.J., averaged 4.3 yards per carry for Villanova this past season. He was 21 last Friday, the day before Villanova lost 6-0 to Oregon State in the Liberty Bowl game in Philadelphia.

Bruhn Unhappy After Badger Contact Drill

Lack of Timing, Poor Reactions Cited by Mentor

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin's preparations for the Rose Bowl game have entered the contact phase, but the initial scrimmage left Coach Milt Bruhn less than satisfied.

"The boys were eager enough but not too sharp," Bruhn said after Tuesday's session. "We have a lot of work to do. We were just not taking off, our timing was bad and we were making too many mistakes."

As the drill neared an end, an obviously unhappy Bruhn shouted, "Stay with your man! Stay with your man!" to a lineman who had missed a block.

The contact was the first for the Badgers since they closed the regular season by beating Minnesota to win the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl date with Southern California on New Year's Day.

Layoff a Factor

Bruhn said the long layoff was a factor in the lack of timing and the way the Badgers reacted when they found players on the other side of the line. Drills, which resumed last week, had been restricted to fundamentals and working on the blocking sleds and the tackling dummies until Tuesday.

More contact was planned for today in another indoor drill. Bruhn said he had given up hope of moving drills outside before the team leaves for California on Saturday.

Bruhn said that information from the infirmary Tuesday indicated starting guard Dion Kempthorne, who has been under observation for a stomach ailment, will not make the trip.

"From what word I received today, we do not plan on him," Bruhn said.

Final statistics of the regular season showed today that Houston was the No. 1 offensive unit, with 4,971 yards—an average of 355 yards per game.

Dallas was second in offense with a 347 yards average and Houston was second in defense, giving up an average of 295.

Oakland won only one game out of 14 but set a record in pass defense. The Raiders surrendered only 2,006 aerial yards for the season.

The five first-division teams in the Little Nine Conference will be matched against second-division clubs in this week's action which will take place Thursday night.

Davidson Turns In Major Upset, Edges Duke, 72-69

Sixth-Ranked Colorado Posts 65-55 Win Over Creighton

BY BEN OLAN Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati's top-ranked college basketball team had better watch out. The upset-hungry Davidson Wildcats may be loaded for Bearcat.

It's a sure thing Cincinnati, which has won 24 in a row and has a date with Dayton Thursday, will be more respectful of the talents of the Southern Conference school from Davidson, N.C., when the teams meet on the Bearcats court Saturday.

Because, Tuesday night, Davidson turned in one of the major upsets of the young campaign by knocking off second-ranked Duke 72-69 at Charlotte, N.C.

The setback was the Blue Devils' first in seven games and lifted Davidson's record to 5-1. Duke had won 52 of the 59 previous meetings between the teams including one by a 76-63 count three weeks ago.

Rally to Take Lead

Davidson really meant business this time. After falling behind 6-0 the Wildcats rallied to take a 17-16 lead and remained in front the rest of the way. Fred Hetzel and Bill Jarman sparked a tremendous team effort as the underdog outshot and outrebounded their Atlantic Coast Conference rivals.

Hetzel scored 27 points and Jarman 21 while Art Heyman and Jeff Mullins each had 21 for Duke.

In other top games, sixth-ranked Colorado defeated Creighton 76-55; Vanderbilt routed Louisville 95-72; Memphis state upset Minnesota 78-70; UCLA beat Butler 81-68; Wake Forest came from behind to defeat Virginia 78-73; Oklahoma trounced Texas Tech 85-62 and Stanford edged Oregon 54-51.

Minnesota, trailing by two points at halftime, rallied early in the second half at Memphis and twice had leads of six points. However, with the Gophers leading 50-46, Memphis State scored eight straight points and pulled in front for good. Eric Magdanz of Minnesota topped both clubs with 30 points. Bob Neumann, with 27, led the Tigers.

Touring UCLA upped its record to 5-2 at Indianapolis. The Bruins chilled Butler with a 56 per cent shooting average from the field. Butler, which trailed by 14 at the half, suffered its seventh defeat in eight starts.

VanderKelen Happy in His New Role

won his freshman numeral in 1958 then was relegated to third string in his first year of varsity competition and wound up playing only 90 seconds.

After sitting out the 1960 campaign, he bumped into trouble with grades and found himself scholastically ineligible.

When football drills opened this fall, VanderKelen was one of eight men coach Milt Bruhn was considering as a replacement for Ron Miller, Wisconsin's quarterback in 1960-61.

"I guess Vandy just wanted the job a year more than the rest of them," said Bruhn, "and he got it."

Wisdom Supported

The record supports the wisdom of Bruhn's choice. The Badgers won eight of their nine games and topped off the season by taking the Big Ten Conference championship.

VanderKelen was recognized as the man who helped make it all possible with his passing, running and field generalship.

The late-blooming quarterback was swamped with personal honors. The Associated Press gave him a first-string berth on the all-Big Ten football team. His teammates named him the squad's most valuable player. And he later was singled out as the most valuable player in the conference.

VanderKelen echoes the respect the entire Wisconsin squad holds for Rose Bowl opponent, Southern California. And he adds a dash of Badger optimism.

"It looks like they have a real good ball club," he said, "but I think we can win."

Catches World Record Tarpon

PORT ST. LUCIE, Fla. (AP)—Ed Kulisek of Port St. Lucie claimed a world record tarpon catch Monday after hauling in a 180-pound, 12-ounce monster in the Rim Ditch near here.

Records here list the former world record for 12 to 20 pound test line at 158 pounds, 8 ounces, set off New Orleans. Kulisek used 15-pound test line.

Fishing from the shore, Kulisek hooked his fish in the tail with a mirror lure. He fought it for one-half hour, then climbed into a fisherman's boat and continued the battle for two more hours.

Normally, a tarpon hooked in the tail would tear free and go on about his business. Apparently, Kulisek's fish had been numbed by cold.

at home will not stop the Cardinals' search for new talent.

He said the road income plus the television income would combine to keep the club bidding for new players.

"Call us in January to see if there are any administrative costs for signing bowl game players under the goal posts," cracked the Cardinal president.

Freshman Leaders Will Seek to Remain Unbeaten

FOX VALLEY FRESHMAN LEAGUE
Team	W	L	Points
Kaukauna	2	0	Neenah
Madison	2	0	Wilson
Kimberly	2	1	Menasha
Roosevelt	2	1

Thursday's Games: Menasha at Wilson. Kaukauna at Roosevelt. Kimberly at Madison.

Fox Valley Freshman League leaders—Kaukauna and Madison—will face stiff challenges Thursday as the Junior Ghosts meet Roosevelt, and Madison plays host to Kimberly.

Both challengers are right on the heels of the circuit's unbeaten leaders. Each has one loss in three starts.

The Menasha-at-Wilson contest will round out the league action. Both are winless thus far this season.

In Kimberly, Madison will have to defend the league's highest scoring player in Tom Van Cuyk. Van Cuyk has accounted for 36 points in his first three frosh games for a 12-point average.

Kaukauna's Bob Main is the runner-up in the scoring totals with 34 points. Roosevelt's Steve Winter is third, with 31 points, and Menasha's Dave Christensen is fourth, with 29.

The junior Rockets from Neenah receive a bye in this week's action.

McKinley Tops U.S. Net List For First Time

Darlene Hard Again Named No. 1 Among Women

NEW YORK (AP)—Chuck McKinley and Darlene Hard top the nation's tennis players in the 1962 ratings of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association. McKinley heads the men's list for the first time while Miss Hard was ranked first among the women for the third straight year.

McKinley of St. Ann., Mo., 21-year-old mainstay of the American Davis Cup team, replaced the slumping Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., as the No. 1 player in the rankings announced Tuesday. Reed, who had a bad year, was dropped to sixth.

McKinley, ranked second a year ago, was at his best in the U.S. Championships at Forest Hills where he put up a tremendous effort before losing to Australia's Roy Emerson in the semifinals.

Miss Hard of Long Beach, Calif., was beaten in the finals of the national championships by Margaret Smith, the tall Australian star.

The rankings were recommended by the men's and women's committees but must be approved at the U.S.L.T.A.'s annual meeting at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., next Feb. 2. Usually that is just a formality.

Frank Froehling III, 20-year-old collegian from Coral Gables, Fla., was boosted from sixth place to second while the veteran Ham Richardson of Dallas was placed third.

The 29-year-old Richardson was ranked first in 1956 and 1958. He virtually gave up big time tennis competition after the 1958 season and did not play enough tournaments to get a ranking since then. There were no changes in the top three of the women's rankings.

Mrs. Karen Hantze Susman of San Antonio, Tex., the Wimbledon titleholder, was placed second and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., who defeated Margaret Smith at Wimbledon, was ranked third.

McKinley and Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., were ranked first again in men's doubles. Mrs. Susman and Miss Moffitt replaced the veteran combination of Mrs. Margaret Osborne dePont and Margaret Varner of Wilmington, Del., as the No. 1 women's doubles tandem.

The singles rankings: 1. Charles McKinley, St. Ann., Mo. 2. Frank Froehling, Coral Gables, Fla. 3. Hamilton Richardson, Dallas. 4. Allen Fox, Los Angeles. 5. Jon Douglas, Santa Monica, Calif. 6. Whitney Reed, Alameda, Calif. 7. Donald Dell, Bethesda, Md. 8. Eugene Scott, St. James, N.Y. 9. Martin Riesen, Evanston, Ill. 10. Charles Pasarelli, Sanluis, P.R.

WOMEN 1. Darlene Hard, Long Beach, Calif. 2. Mrs. Karen Hantze Susman, San Antonio, Tex. 3. Billie Jean Moffitt, Long Beach, Calif. 4. Carol Caldwell, Santa Monica, Calif. 5. Donna Floyd, Arlington, Va. 6. Nancy Richey, Dallas. 7. Victoria Palmer, Phoenix, Ariz. 8. Gwyneth Thomas, Shaker Heights, Ohio. 9. Justina Bricks, St. Louis. 10. Judy Alvarez, Tampa, Fla.

Ordinance at Kaukauna Will Control Walks

Merchandise Can't Remain on Sidewalks New Law Declares

KAUKAUNA — Adoption of an ordinance which prohibits merchants from displaying items on sidewalks into difficulty Tuesday night, but finally passed 6-4. The ordinance prohibits leaving items on the walk for over three hours when in the process of receiving or delivering, outlaws side vending machines on walks and prohibits displaying any merchandise on walks unless approval is granted by the council for sidewalk sales or special civic promotions. Penalty will be $10 for the first violation and an additional $10 for each hour the object remains on the walk after orders to remove are given by police, mayor or an alderman. Businessman Objects Phil Haas, local businessman, appeared before the council objecting to the ordinance. He claimed the ordinance was unnecessary, no one had ever been hurt by merchants displaying items on the walk and it was being adopted to control one northside merchant, yet all merchants were forced to suffer. He suggested amending the ordinance which would permit display of items on walks during normal business hours and to prohibit vending machines on walks which could solve broken bottle problems. Fourth ward Ald. Russell Dix indicated mailboxes, trees, light posts and trash containers cluttered walks so why legislate against merchants. He stated sidewalks were plenty wide and pedestrian traffic was not impeded. Fifth ward Ald. Fred Reichel agreed with Dix stating traffic was not overly great in the city. Walks were plenty wide and display of new merchandise on walks was good advertising. William Rogers, Fifth ward alderman, felt merchants should be permitted to display items on walks during business hours and merchants should carry insurance to cover injury to persons should sidewalk obstruction cause such a claim.

Aldermen Favor First ward Ald. Arnold Vander Loop stated, the city has had claims filed against it due to people being forced off the walk to avoid merchandise thereby resulting in injury. Clarence O'Connor, First ward alderman, reported some merchants favored the ordinance and questioned whether anyone knew the Chamber of Commerce feeling. Gilbert Anderson, Fourth ward alderman, reported on complaints he had received and stated the police were unable to force merchants to remove merchandise since the city had no ordinance. A motion by Rogers to refer the matter back to committee failed, 7-3 after David Specht, Second ward alderman, asked, "what is this, a circus?" "The legislative committee has studied this question twice, the second time for four nights," Specht then moved the ordinance be adopted and on a vote it passed.

Lawrence Says

JFK Explains How Not to Act in Crisis

Decision to Rid Cuba of Missiles Came Too Slow

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—President Kennedy has unwittingly just given the American people an explanation of how an administration should not function in a crisis. He told of his experience with numerous advisers and conflicting opinions in connection with the Cuban crisis.

Lawrence

But what he did not explain is why the Government of the United States did not take action in Cuba when first reports came concerning the intervention of the Communist government in the island country.

Mr. Kennedy tells of how critical those "six days" in October were when his advisers gathered around him and there was fear that a mis-step might be made. But he doesn't give any satisfactory answer to the question of why the Cuban situation was allowed to drift as far as it did before those same six days of decision-making started.

The President's review of his first two years in office, as given over television and radio of the three major networks, is an example of the advantage which the President has in the getting of publicity. There was no opportunity to rebut or refute what he said. Copies of his remarks were not made available to the press until about an hour and a half before the first broadcast. Opposition speakers who could have told the American people the weaknesses in the President's argument had no chance to examine the transcript, though actually Mr. Kennedy gave the interview twenty-four hours earlier, when it was taped by the networks.

Not Solved
The Cuban problem has not yet been solved, and it will take intensive investigation by Congressional committees to find out why the American people were left unprotected from the time last August when first reports came in concerning the emplacement of Soviet missiles to the taking of action late in October.

The President's analysis of the way his administration reacted to the Cuban crisis indicates that he did not actually decide to take action against the Soviet government until he had some photographs showing the missiles were already in place. But many Americans had believed, from a reading of history, that the Monroe Doctrine was still a part of the foreign policy of the United States. They had assumed that the United States would act promptly to prevent the establishment of any European system in this hemisphere.

The Kennedy administration, however, allowed the Soviet government to get a stronger and stronger hold in Cuba. Indeed, when the so-called "invasion" was undertaken in the spring of 1961, the Kennedy Administration at first agreed to help the Cuban exiles and then withdrew air cover. It was this blunder which led the Soviets to believe that they could take a chance and send missiles to Cuba and that nothing would be done until the missiles actually were in place. Then the missiles could be withdrawn as a part of a trading process, with Premier Khrushchev hoping perhaps he could get concessions from the United States in connection with the Berlin or other controversies.

The dangers and risks in making foreign policy decisions by the method outlined by the President in his interview on television will give pause to those who have hitherto believed that the Government of the United States would never allow any potential enemy to get as close as the Soviets did in Cuba. The fact that missiles were being shipped to Cuba was well known, and speeches were made, calling attention to this, on the floor of the Senate by Republican leaders as well as by some Democrats. The Central Intelligence Agency, on which the American government must depend for knowledge of what is going on inside foreign countries, had a substantial amount of information concerning what was happening in Cuba. It was enough for the American government to act upon and at least to demand in the late summer that the Cubans get rid of Russian military equipment of all kinds.

Advisers Fears
Mr. Kennedy in his interview tells of the fears of his advisers that the situation might be "escalated." The difficulty is that the situation was allowed to reach the brink of danger, anyway. Hitherto, American policy has been based upon established principles. There is no need for conferences among advisers, official or unofficial, to determine what the duty of the United States happens to be when a basic principle of national safety has been violated. It is as if the United States would argue whether or not it should retaliate when a blow is struck against its security. The fact that, when such a blow was struck in Cuba, it was the subject of six days of discussion before a determination was made to take forceful action, is an indication of how slow the process of decision-making has become.

Mr. Kennedy's explanation of the Russian attitude in connection with the missiles in Cuba is an interesting illustration of how little the United States was prepared to meet the different contingencies which arose. Instead of forestalling action, the problem was allowed to develop to a point where a real crisis emerged. Mr. Kennedy gives an interesting narrative of what happened. He says:

Looking Back
"I think, looking back on Cuba, what is of concern is the fact that both governments were so far out of contact, really. I don't think that we expected that he would put the missiles in Cuba, because it would have seemed such an imprudent action for him to take, as it was later proved. Now, he obviously must have thought that he could do it in secret and that the United States would accept it. So that he did not judge our intentions accurately."

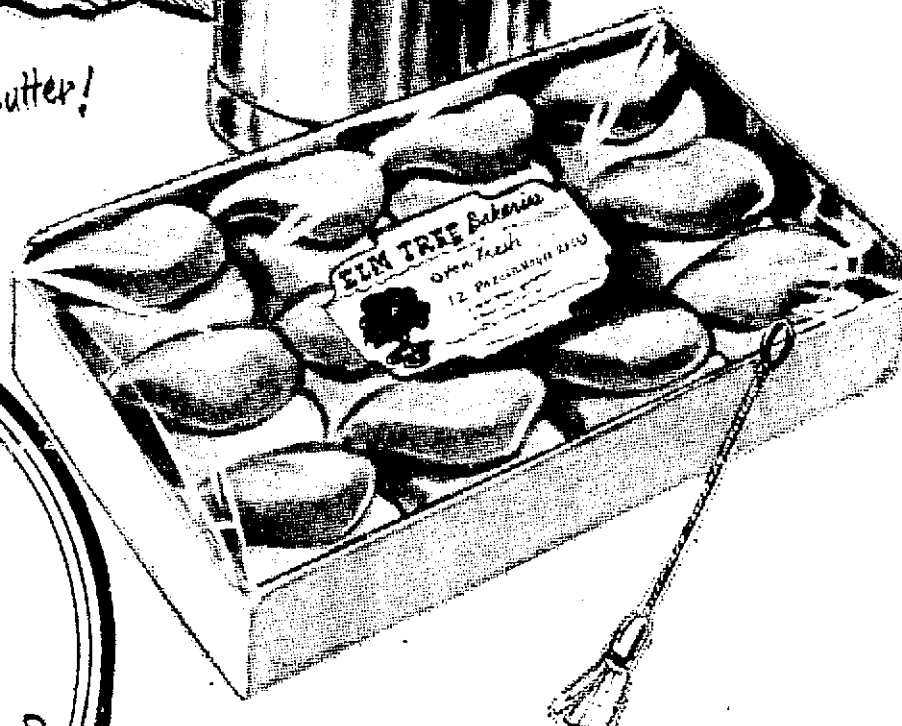

The American people will still want to know why the United States did not do more about Soviet activities in Cuba during the years 1961 and 1962, especially when there was widespread knowledge that the Communists were militarily active in that country.

Recreational Boats
In 1964 America could boast of some 15,000 recreational boats. By 1967 the number had jumped to an estimated 2,440,000 and by 1971, to 7,175,000.

Drinkers of Alcohol Should Watch Intake

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: How long does it take for alcohol to leave the system?
Who is more likely to become an alcoholic, the heavy drinker who loves the taste of whiskey, or the one who drinks to acquire the feeling derived from it?
—T.H.H.

Alcohol's rate of elimination depends both on the amount consumed and the rate at which it is drunk.
Eight ounces of whiskey, imbibed in a short time, may show measurable levels of alcohol in the blood for 12, 24 or even more hours.
The same amount consumed over a longer period may be eliminated quickly.
Alcohol is absorbed rapidly from the stomach, but after that it may remain for varying periods in other parts of the body, including the blood.
If we knew how to hasten the elimination, we could treat acute alcoholism much better. Lacking such a method, moderation is the best advice to drinkers. In fact, moderation is the best rule for health.

Your other question has no categorical answer. There are too many other factors involved: the frequency of drinking, the drinker's psychological make-up, his tolerance of alcohol, or the reasons for drinking.
In my experience there are precious few people who truly enjoy the taste of whiskey, but the heavy drinker, whether he has a taste for it or a yearning for its intoxicating effect, is a prime candidate for becoming an alcoholic.

Dear Dr. Molner: What is a posterior myocardial infarction? It seems to be a clot, but in what part of the body?—Mrs. E. H.
No, not a clot, but the result of a clot or some other comparable interruption of circulation. The infarction (or infarct) is a portion of an organ that has been damaged by having the flood supply shut off.

The word myocardial gives the location—the heart muscle (from myo for muscle and cardio for heart). Posterior means it is in the rear part of the muscle.
In short, a heart attack has occurred. This particular type is the commonest, and it also carries the most favorable outlook for the patient. If you want fuller details, I suggest that you send 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for a copy of my booklet, "How to Take Care of Your Heart." (Send requests to Dr. Molner, care of this newspaper.)
Dear Dr. Molner: Is too much coffee harmful? My brother sometimes drinks seven or eight cups. What amount would you consider safe?—A. C.
It's impossible to suggest any set amount because people vary considerably in their reaction to coffee, or the caffeine in it. If your brother is nervous, jittery, has a fast heart rate or notices "skipping" of the organ, or if his blood pressure is elevated, then cut down on the coffee. But if he feels all right, moderation is the best rule for him alone.

Democratic City Elects GOP Mayor
BIDDEFORD, Maine (AP) — This staunchly Democratic textile city Monday night elected its first Republican mayor in 67 years. William W. Pomerleau received 4,535 votes against 2,848 for Mayor Clement H. Deschambault in a runoff election.
The Democrats retained control of the City Council. Deschambault was seeking his sixth one-year term.

'Something Box' Leads List of Fantastic Gifts

NEW YORK (AP) — A well-heeled Santa Claus can fill Christmas stockings with fantastic gifts this year. Stores across the country are offering an unusually great array of high-priced, exotic items for men, women and youngsters who already have everything. They're mostly gimmicks. While some of them sell, stores don't depend on them for much of their profits. If you have the money, you can take your choice from a half-million-dollar diamond to a $200 chinchilla seat belt. The diamond is for sale at New York City's famed jewelry store, Tiffany's. But way down on Tiffany's price scale is a $7 sterling silver tape measure. "Something Box" For the jaded executive, the New York City store, Hammacher Schlemmer has the "Something Box" at $25. Designed to sit on a desk, it has a bank of eight tiny lights which blink urgently. It doesn't do a useful thing, but it's impressive. This store also has the chinchilla seat belts. At other New York City stores there are $1,650 chinchilla sweaters, $110 fur bedsheets, electric socks and automatic spaghetti winders. Nieman-Marcus in Dallas is displaying a 30-foot Chinese junk (boat, that is) for $11,500. Bigelow Kennard & Co. of Boston offers men a gold mesh wallet for $390. If you would enjoy an oriental tub of the Ghang dynasty for use as an ice bucket, Marshall Field's of Chicago has them—price, $100. "Tanning" Doll For little girls, stores in sunny Miami have a special doll. When you take the doll out in the sun it "tans" but regains a "Yankee" complexion when returned indoors. Also in Miami, the F.A.O. Schwarz toy store has a tree house for $195; a pint-size log cabin at $450, and a 34-inch model horse made with real horsehide at $435. Leopard skin gloves at $125 are featured by A. Sulka Co., men's haberdashers of New York City, Chicago, Palm Beach, Fla., and San Francisco. But you don't have to be extravagant to be different. What youngster wouldn't like a leash for a pet turtle—cost 49 cents—if he has a turtle. Entertains at Party Miss Jean Ingenthron, 3546 E. # Free-Wheeling Drivers Find Future as Accident Statistic

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a 17-year-old girl who is baffled by a problem. All the fellows in our crowd have cars. Some of the guys are careful drivers, but most of them like to show off when they get behind the wheel.

Landers

I've been in cars with guys who have deliberately run red lights and gone through stop signs just to prove idiot and I know it, but if you they aren't chicken. One fellow will help me square things with likes to see how close he can my doll I'll behave from now come to another car when passing. on. I raise my right hand.

A boy I used to go steady with. The other night I was driving was a speed maniac and drove from a meeting and I spotted this one of those revved up jobs 100 cuth chick waiting for a bus. or with a fellow who is drinking is asking for serious trouble.

My advice is this: Get out of the car at the very first opportunity. Go to the nearest telephone and call your parents or the police and ask them to come and get you.

When the fellows learn you will not risk your neck with a smart alecky driver, they'll behave. Or — let them pile up with some other girl who had less sense than you.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm an idiot and I know it, but if you they aren't chicken. One fellow will help me square things with likes to see how close he can my doll I'll behave from now come to another car when passing. on. I raise my right hand.

spook and I'll never see her again. I know I did a dumb thing and I'm sorry. Please help me patch it up.—Mac the Knife.

Dear Mac: (Pretty dull knife.) Too bad your mother never taught you not to ride with strangers.

Life is a series of decisions. Bub. Sometimes the wrong one can fix your clock permanently. I'll ask the doll to forgive you this time, but if you steal any more customers from the bus company I hope she gives you the axe.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My dad who is now 37 years of age came to live with us two years ago when mother passed away. Our youngsters were very fond of him and he adored them.

Six months ago dad married a widow who has three young children. He is so wrapped up in his new family that he doesn't pay any attention to his own grandchildren any more. Of course we all feel hurt.

Why do people get nutty in their old age? Dad had everything a man could want when he lived with us, and now he has tangled himself up with this widow and these kids of hers. According to law who is entitled to a man's estate—blood relatives, (such as grandchildren), or step-children? Please answer in the paper so other old fools can see it.—Tear-Filled Eyes

Dear Girl: The dollar signs are glowing like neon lights in those tear-filled eyes of yours. If there is no will the laws of the state prevail. I wouldn't be a bit surprised if the step-children came in ahead of the grandchildren. (And incidentally, your sad story gets me right here, Toots.)

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Necking and Petting—And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request in 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mincemeat Types

When you buy ready-prepared mincemeat for holiday baking, be sure to read the label so you know what kind you're getting. One, labeled "condensed" must be combined with water and heated over a low heat to make it soft in consistency. It contains dehydrated apples. The other type is labeled "ready to use" and it requires no additional preparation.

Christmas Card Display

Every year when a certain house is decorated for Christmas, a much prized abstract painting is removed from a wall in favor of felt streamers bedecked with greeting cards. This idea is a good one wherever bold wall decoration complicates changing a room to a Christmas mood. Whether it's a big picture, or a smaller one of a summery scene, gay cards displayed imaginatively can be its holiday replacement.

Measure the wall to be covered, and plot the number and length of felt strips accordingly. Cut them 3 to 4-inches wide and attach rings to the tops. All that's left to do is to stiffen the ends of the felt on the backs with pencil-wide strips of cardboard, decorate it with end borders of gold paper trimming, and attach cards as they arrive. Cards can be pinned on or attached with pressure tape that has adhesive on both sides. Locate nails for hanging where holes will be covered later by the picture.

Mrs. W. S. B.: "The sofa bed with novelty threads, is suitable for windows with sheer curtains, and so are finer textures. But be sure to look at the many other cloth window shades the stores have now in eyelet and lacy patterns, and printed in soft colors.

OPEN EVERY NIGHT UNTIL CHRISTMAS

A child's absorption with a new toy, whether his own or someone else's, can be a completely world-shutting-out-experience. A situation such as this was caught by a Post-Crescent photographer at the First Methodist Church Children's Christmas party Saturday afternoon in the church basement.

John Monsted III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Monsted Jr., 1350 W. Pine St., discovered the delight of pounding pegs, and became oblivious to everything else. The joyful shouts around him made no entry on his concentration, and other children who stopped to watch weren't even seen as he worked the pegs with diligence.

Weary at last, John was lured away from his work by a game of ring-around-the-Christmas-tree.

John Monsted, III, 3 1/2, didn't care whose toy the pounding board really was. To him it was the highlight of the Saturday party. Above, Michelle and Mary Ann Mauk watch John wield the hammer, and Mary Ann looks as if the toy might really belong to her.

Jeffrey Kuehl and Heide Sorenson hold their toys, gifts of Santa Claus, and watch John work at the peg board he discovered at the Christmas party held Saturday afternoon for children at the First Methodist Church. John didn't even look up from his endeavors. At right, he was finally lured away from the toy for a game with the other children and their mothers. The party was sponsored by the Mothers' Club of the church. John is in the right foreground. Circling the tree, clockwise, are Debbie Jabas, Russell Jabas, Mrs. Richard Jabas, Richard Knepple, Diane Schlanser, Jeffery Kuehl and Mrs. John Monsted Jr.

One World Look Now In Fashion

The man of the 60's is the world traveler, as much at home in any European capital as on his own Main Street. Business trips to London and Paris, Rome and Hong Kong are all in the day's work for him and his clothes as well as his manner have an international air.

plane to Europe — the man who is completely at ease, comfortable and casual, always looking exactly right in any background. He may be British or American, French or Italian, but he knows his way around the world. The new look in men's clothing blends American comfort and casual ease with the best of several continental styles. It features natural shoulders and the slightly wider lapels favored by English tailors. It has a three-button, single-breasted jacket slightly shorter than American men have been choosing their clothes with an eye to the intercontinental look.

The international man dares to break away from the black or charcoal gray suit which has been almost a male uniform for the last few years, and chooses lighter tones this fall — silver grays or deep, rich browns. He may wear a camel hair polo coat on his travels and look correct in any capital. Credit the U.N., the Common Market, or the boom in world travel. Whatever the reason, American men have outgrown the colloquial look in fashion and are choosing their clothes with an eye to the intercontinental look.

Signal High Only if You Have Desire

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD
The next time you and your lawyer go into the drugstore to buy a deck of cards, read the fine print very carefully before you close the deal. A good contract should say: "Party of first part doesn't have to signal if he doesn't want to."
Just a short time ago I saw a party of the first part commit mayhem on a contract. If you're not a legal beagle, this means that he murdered the hand. All because he didn't read that fine print.

West opened the ace of spades, and East was the gent who didn't know his rights. East thought he just had to signal with the nine of spades to show he had the king. Before you could say Magna Carta, West had continued with the jack of spades and then a third spade.

No Tears
South shed no tears over this defense. He ruffed the third spade, drew trumps, and knocked out the ace of diamonds. He then claimed the rest of the tricks.

Even if you never passed a bar examination you can see that East's nine of spades at the first trick was a misdemeanor. Since East didn't really want a spade continuation he should not have played a high spade.

If East plays the deuce of spades at the first trick, discouraging a continuation, West will naturally switch to his singleton diamond. South will go down before he knows what is happening, since West will get at least one diamond ruff.

Save your encouraging signals for when you mean business.

Daily Question
As dealer, you hold: S 6 3 H A J 10 7 4 D K 8 2 C K 10 5. What do you say?

Answer: Pass. The hand is not quite worth an opening bid. Wait for something better or for a chance to bid the hand secondarily.

The dish, sometimes called sauce dish, is unnecessary when vegetables can so easily be placed on the dinner plate. Such little dishes take up space and make a table look cluttered. Lawrence Says

JFK Explains How Not to Act in Crisis

Decision to Rid Cuba of Missiles Came Too Slow

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—President Kennedy has unwittingly just given the American people an explanation of how an administration should not function in a crisis. He told of his experience with numerous advisers and conflicting opinions in connection with the Cuban crisis. But what he did not explain is why the Government of the United States did not take action in Cuba when first reports came concerning the intervention of the Communist government in the island country.

the Soviets to believe that they could take a chance and send missiles to Cuba and that nothing would be done until the missiles actually were in place. Then the missiles could be withdrawn as a part of a trading process, with Premier Khrushchev hoping perhaps he could get concessions from the United States in connection with the Berlin or other controversies.

The dangers and risks in making foreign policy decisions by the method outlined by the President in his interview on television will give pause to those who have hitherto believed that the Government of the United States would never allow any potential enemy to get as close as the Soviets did in Cuba. The fact that missiles were being shipped to Cuba was well known, and speeches were made, calling attention to this, on the floor of the Senate by Republican leaders as well as by some Democrats. The Central Intelligence Agency, on which the American government must depend for knowledge of what is going on inside foreign countries, had a substantial amount of information concerning what was happening in Cuba. It was enough for the American government to act upon and at least to demand in the late summer that the Cubans get rid of Russian military equipment of all kinds.

Advisers Fears

Mr. Kennedy in his interview tells of the fears of his advisers that the situation might be "escalated." The difficulty is that the situation was allowed to reach the brink of danger, anyway.

Hitherto, American policy has been based upon established principles. There is no need for conferences among advisers, official or unofficial, to determine what the duty of the United States happens to be when a basic principle of national safety has been violated. It is as if the United States would argue whether or not it should retaliate when a blow is struck against its security. The fact that, when such a blow was struck in Cuba, it was the subject of six days of discussion before a determination was made to take forceful action, is an indication of how slow the process of decision-making has become.

Mr. Kennedy's explanation of the Russian attitude in connection with the missiles in Cuba is an interesting illustration of how little the United States was prepared to meet the different contingencies which arose. Instead of forestalling action, the problem was allowed to develop to a point where a real crisis emerged. Mr. Kennedy gives an interesting narrative of what happened. He says:

Looking Back

"I think, looking back on Cuba, what is of concern is the fact that both governments were so far out of contact, really. I don't think that we expected that he would put the missiles in Cuba, because it would have seemed such an imprudent action for him to take, as it was later proved. Now, he obviously must have thought that he could do it in secret and that the United States would accept it. So that he did not judge our intentions accurately."

The American people will still want to know why the United States did not do more about Soviet activities in Cuba during the years 1961 and 1962, especially when there was widespread knowledge that the Communists were militarily active in that country.

Recreational Boats

In 1964 America could boast of some 15,000 recreational boats. By 1947 the number had jumped to an estimated 2,440,000 and by 1961, to 7,175,000.

To Your Good Health

Drinkers of Alcohol Should Watch Intake

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: How long does it take for alcohol to leave the system?

Who is more likely to become an alcoholic, the heavy drinker who loves the taste of whiskey, or the one who drinks to acquire the feeling derived from it?—T.H.H.

Alcohol's rate of elimination depends both on the amount consumed and the rate at which it is drunk.

Eight ounces of whiskey, imbibed in a short time, may show measurable levels of alcohol in the blood for 12, 24 or even more hours.

The same amount consumed over a longer period may be eliminated quickly.

Alcohol is absorbed rapidly from the stomach, but after that it may remain for varying periods in other parts of the body, including the blood.

If we knew how to hasten the elimination, we could treat acute alcoholism much better. Lacking such a method, moderation is the best advice to drinkers. In fact, moderation is the best rule for health.

Your other question has no categorical answer. There are too many other factors involved: the frequency of drinking, the drinker's psychological make-up, his tolerance of alcohol, or his reasons for drinking.

In my experience, there are precious few people who truly enjoy the taste of whiskey, but the heavy drinker, whether he has taste for it or a yearning for its intoxicating effect, is a prime candidate for becoming an alcoholic. I repeat: moderation is the best rule: total abstinence is the only answer for some people.

Dear Dr. Molner: What is a posterior myocardial infarction? It seems to be a clot, but in what part of the body?—Mrs. E. H.

No, not a clot, but the result of a clot or some other comparable interruption of circulation.

The infarction (or infarct) is a portion of an organ that has been damaged by having the blood supply shut off. The word myocardial gives the location—the heart muscle (from myo for muscle and cardio for heart). Posterior means it is in the rear part of the muscle.

In short, a heart attack has occurred. This particular type is the commonest, and it also carries the most favorable outlook for the patient. If you want fuller details, I suggest that you send 20 cents in coin and a long self-addressed, stamped envelope for a copy of my booklet, "How to Take Care of Your Heart." (Send requests to Dr. Molner, care of this newspaper.)

Dear Dr. Molner: Is too much coffee harmful? My brother sometimes drinks seven or eight cups. What amount would you consider over a longer period may be safe?—A. C.

It's impossible to suggest any set amount because people vary considerably in their reaction to coffee, or the caffeine in it. If your brother is nervous, jittery, has a fast heart rate or notices "skipping" of the organ, or if his blood pressure is elevated, then I'd say by all means to cut down on the coffee. But if he feels all right, has none of those symptoms and sleeps well, then let him alone.

Dear Dr. Molner: Would it be advisable for a woman of 48, in skip-and-flood stage of menstruation, to be a blood donor?—D.M.

There's no reason why not, unless the "flooding" is causing some anemia. And this condition would be checked before blood is drawn anyway.

'Something Box' Leads List of Fantastic Gifts

NEW YORK (AP) — A well-heeled Santa Claus can fill Christmas stockings with fantastic gifts this year.

Stores across the country are offering an unusually great array of high-priced, exotic items for men, women and youngsters who already have everything. They're mostly gimmicks. While some of them sell, stores don't depend on them for much of their profits.

If you have the money, you can take your choice from a half-million-dollar diamond to a $200 chinchilla seat belt.

The diamond is for sale at New York City's famed jewelry store, Tiffany's. But way down on Tiffany's price scale is a $7 sterling silver tape measure.

"Something Box"

For the jaded executive, the New York City store, Hammacher Schlemmer has the "Something Box" at $25. Designed to sit on a desk, it has a bank of eight tiny lights which blink urgently. It doesn't do a useful thing, but it's impressive.

This store also has the chinchilla seat belts.

At other New York City stores there are $1,650 chinchilla sweaters, $110 fur bedsheets, electric socks and automatic spaghetti winders.

Nieman-Marcus in Dallas is displaying a 30-foot Chinese junk (boat, that is) for $11,500.

Bigelow Kennard & Co. of Boston offers men a gold mesh wallet for $390.

If you would enjoy an oriental tub of the Gheng dynasty for use as an ice bucket, Marshall Field's of Chicago has them—price, $100.

"Tanning" Doll

For little girls, stores in sunny Miami have a special doll. When you take the doll out in the sun it "tans" but regains a "Yankee" complexion when returned indoors.

Also in Miami, the F.A.O. Schwarz toy store has a tree-group of her fellow employees at house for $195; a pint-size log cabin at $450, and a 54-inch model horse made with real horsehide at $435.

Leopard skin gloves at $125 are featured by A. Sulka Co., men's haberdashers of New York City, Chicago, Palm Beach, Fla., and San Francisco.

But you don't have to be extravagant to be different. What youngster wouldn't like a leash for a pet turtle—cost 49 cents—if he has a turtle.

Entertains at Party

Miss Jean Ingenthron, 3546 E. Wisconsin Road, entertained a group of her fellow employees at the Wisconsin Telephone Co. at a

Holiday Party Planned at 'Y'

Mrs. Alvin Schubring will serve as hostess for the annual Christmas party for girls who are members of the YMCA from 4 to 6 30 p.m. Friday at the girls locker room and gym. She will be assisted by Mrs. Maxine Vanevenhoven, women and girls program director.

A program of Christmas carols will be presented by the Little Women's groups. Miss Sue Selles is adviser. Miss Pamela Schultz will give a solo rendition of "O Come All Ye Faithful."

Richard M. Baker, 601 E. Grant St., will serve as toastmaster for the 25th anniversary celebration of the Twin City Civic Club, Marquette and Menominee, Mich. The celebration will be held this evening at the Riverside Country Club, Menominee. Mr. Baker is a past president of the club.

Free-Wheeling Drivers Find Future as Accident Statistic

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a 17-year-old girl who is baffled by a problem. All the fellows in our crowd have cars. Some of the guys are careful drivers, but most of them like to show off when they get behind the wheel.

I've been in cars with guys who have deliberately run red lights and gone through stop signs just to prove idiot and I know it, but if you they aren't chicken. One fellow will help me square things with likes to see how close he can my doll I'll behave from now come to another car when passing. on, I raise my right hand.

A boy I used to go steady with. The other night I was driving was a speed maniac and drove from a meeting and I spotted this one of those revved up jobs 100 cute chick waiting for a bus. I miles an hour. He finally had a asked her if she wanted a lift terrible accident. It was his girl and she said yes. To make a long friend, not him, who was scared story short she told me she was for life. When they pulled him pretty good at the twist, so we out of the wreck the beer cans ended up at a little out of the way were still in the front seat.

My advice is this: Get out of the car at the very first opportunity. Go to the nearest telephone and call your parents or the police and ask them to come and get you.

When the fellows learn you will not risk your neck with a smart alecky driver, they'll behave. Or — let them pile up with some other girl who had less sense than you.

Six months ago dad married a widow who has three young children. He is so wrapped up in his new family that he doesn't pay any attention to his own grandchildren any more. Of course we all feel hurt.

Why do people get nutty in their old age? Dad had everything a man could want when he lived with us, and now he has tangled himself up with this widow and these kids of hers. According to law who is entitled to a man's estate—blood relatives, (such as grandchildren), or step-children? Please answer in the paper so other old fools can see it.—Tear-Filled Eyes

Dear Girl: The dollar signs are glowing like neon lights in those tear-filled eyes of yours. If there is no will the laws of the state prevail. I wouldn't be a bit surprised if the step-children came in ahead of the grandchildren. (And incidentally, your sad story gets me right here, Toots.)

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Necking and Petting—And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request in 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mincemeat Types

When you buy ready-prepared mincemeat for holiday baking, be sure to read the label so you know what kind you're getting. One, labeled "condensed" must be combined with water and heated over a low heat to make it soft in consistency. It contains dehydrated apples. The other type is labeled "ready to use" and it requires no additional preparation.

Every year when a certain house is decorated for Christmas, a much prized abstract painting is removed from a wall in favor of felt streamers bedecked with greeting cards. This idea is a good one wherever: bold wall decoration complicates changing a room to a Christmas mood. Whether it's a big picture, or a smaller one of a summery scene, gay cards displayed imaginatively can be its holiday replacement.

Measure the wall to be covered, and plot the number and length of felt strips accordingly. Cut them 3 to 4-inches wide and attach them to the tops. All that's left to do is to stuff the ends of the felt on the backs with pencil-wide strips of cardboard, decorate it with end borders of gold paper trimming, and attach cards as they arrive. Cards can be pinned on or attached with pressure tape that has adhesive on both sides. Locate nails for hanging where holes will be covered later by the picture.

This is comfortable for watching TV, but what can be done to make room for the sofa bed?"

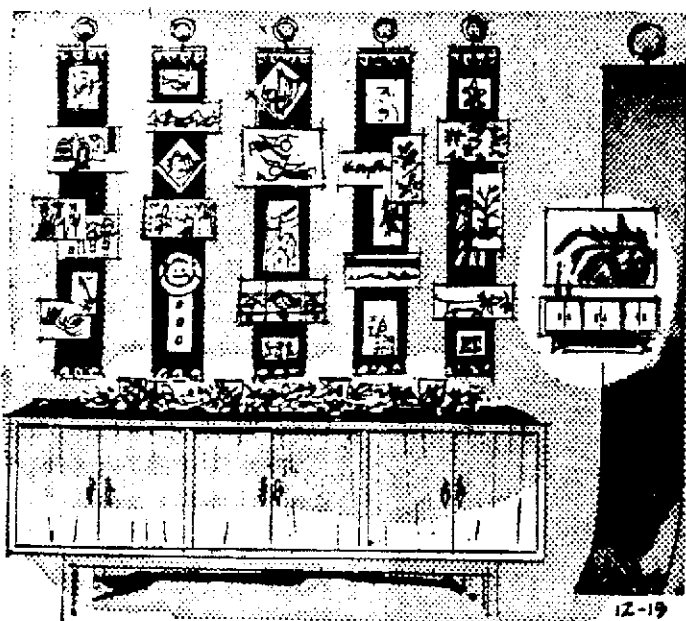

If sleeping accommodation for one person is adequate, choose one of the new love seat size sofa beds and the present arrangement won't need much change. The room is wide enough so that the bed can be pulled forward for sleeping. A sofa bed to sleep two will necessarily rule out at least one of the chairs.

New Toy Creates a New World

Wednesday, Dec. 19, 1962 Appleton Post-Crescent 4

A child's absorption with a new toy, whether his own or someone else's, can be a completely world-shutting-out-experience. A situation such as this was caught by a Post-Crescent photographer at the First Methodist Church Children's Christmas party Saturday afternoon in the church basement.

John Monsted III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Monsted Jr., 1350 W. Pine St., discovered the delight of pounding pegs, and became oblivious to everything else. The joyful shouts around him made no entry on his concentration, and other children who stopped to watch weren't even seen as he worked the pegs with diligence.

Weary at last, John was lured away from his work by a game of ring-around-the-Christmas-tree.

John Monsted, III, 3½, didn't care whose toy the pounding board really was. To him it was the highlight of the Saturday party. Above, Michelle and Mary Ann Mauk watch John wield the hammer, and Mary Ann looks as if the toy might really belong to her.

Jeffrey Kuehl and Heide Sorenson held their toys, gifts of Santa Claus, and watch John work at the peg board he discovered at the Christmas party held Saturday afternoon for children at the First Methodist Church. John didn't even look up from his endeavors. At right, he was finally lured away from the toy for a game with the other children and their mothers. The party was sponsored by the Mothers' Club of the church. John is in the right foreground. Circling the tree, clockwise, are Debbie Jabas, Russell Jabas, Mrs. Richard Jabas, Richard Knepple, Diane Schlasner, Jeffery Kuehl and Mrs. John Monsted Jr.

One World Look Now In Fashion

The man of the 60's is the world traveler, as much at home in any European capital as on his own Main Street. Business trips to London and Paris, Rome and Hong Kong are all in the day's work for him and his clothes as well as his manner have an intercontinental air.

plane to Europe — the man who is completely at ease, comfortable and casual, always looking exactly right in any background. He may be British or American, French or Italian, but he knows his way around the world. The new look in men's clothing blends American comfort and casual ease with the best of several continental styles. It features natural shoulders and the slightly wider lapels favored by English tailors. It has a three-button, single-breasted jacket slightly shorter than American men have been choosing their clothes with an eye to the intercontinental look.

You can spot him on any jet wearing but slightly longer than to the intercontinental look.

Signal High Only if You Have Desire

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

The next time you and your lawyer go into the drugstore to buy a deck of cards, read the fine print very carefully before you close the deal. A good contract should say: "Party of first part doesn't have to signal if he doesn't want to."

Just a short time ago I saw a party of the first part commit

mayhem on a contract. If you're not a legal beagle, this means that he murdered the hand. All because he didn't read that fine print.

West opened the ace of spades, and East was the gent who didn't know his rights. East thought he just had to signal with the nine of spades to show he had the king.

Before you could say Magna Carta, West had continued with the jack of spades and then a third spade.

No Tears
South shed no tears over this defense. He ruffed the third spade, drew trumps, and knocked out the ace of diamonds. He then claimed the rest of the tricks.

Even if you never passed a bar examination you can see that East's nine of spades at the first trick was a misdemeanor. Since East didn't really want a spade continuation he should not have played a high spade.

If East plays the deuce of spades at the first trick, discouraging a continuation, West will naturally switch to his singleton diamond. South will go down before he knows what is happening, since West will get at least one diamond ruff.

Save your encouraging signals for when you mean business.

Daily Question
As dealer, you hold: S 6 3 H A J 10 7 4 D K 8 2 C K 10 5. What do you say?

Answer: Pass. The hand is not quite worth an opening bid. Wait for something better or for a chance to bid the hand secondarily.

Replating Wood Steps

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: I have a short flight of wood steps to the front porch. These are badly worn and must be replaced. What kind of wood is recommended for this?

A: Use cypress, yellow pine, redwood or douglas fir. Any good wood can be used. Be sure to paint on all sides and edges before installation, to prevent moisture penetrating into the wood, which is a frequent cause of subsequent cracking, warping, even rotting.

Q: How can mildew be removed from bamboo stick shades used on a porch?

A: Scrub the bamboo surface with a stiff brush and a warm detergent solution, followed by ample rinsing with clear water; then apply a household chlorine bleach solution (one cup bleach to two quarts water) and allow to remain four to five minutes to kill any remaining mold spores; then rinse thoroughly again with clear water. When dry, apply a mildewproofing preparation available at marine supplies stores and some large housewares dealers, following label directions carefully. Or spray on clear, fresh shellac to both sides of the shade to seal the surface.

Q: I inherited an assortment of old jewelry. How can I test some of the pieces to find out whether they are real gold?

A: Get Nitric Acid

Q: A small quantity of nitric acid in a glass-stoppered bottle at a drug store. Touch the metal you want to test with a drop of the acid on the end of the stopper. If it is gold, there will be no action; any base metal will show a blue tint. Be very careful not to let the acid touch your hands, as it is very caustic and will cause severe burns on the skin. SAUCE DISHES

Many a sleeve has had a brush with food on a dinner plate when reaching for a forkful of vegetables in a side dish. It's a long and awkward reach and often annoying.

The dish, sometimes called sauce dish, is unnecessary when vegetables can so easily be placed on the dinner plate. Such little dishes take up space and make a table look cluttered. Except for serving stewed tomatoes or other "liquids" preparations which call for a fork, a wise hostess will use these little side dishes, that is her prerogative—

Strong Yet Safe - Gives Hours of Continuous Relief from Minor

ARTHRITIS PAINS

Reduces swelling and inflammation so it's easier to move afflicted limbs again

No cure as yet has been found for arthritis. But medical research has established that the strong yet safe medication in Anacin® gives hours of relief from arthritis' minor pains—even such chronic pain arising from deep in joints. It has also been found Anacin has an anti-inflammatory action that helps reduce swelling and inflammation—a basic cause of arthritis suffering. In minutes—pain is relieved so it's easier to move around and this helps keep joints from "locking" or "stiffening". Anacin Tablets are so effective because they contain strong yet safe medication. Remember, aspirin or buffered aspirin has only one pain reliever. But Anacin is like a doctor's prescription. That is, a combination of three medically proven ingredients. And Anacin does not upset the stomach. Take as directed.

Riverdale Area Yule Party Held Sunday

The Riverdale area Christmas tree was set up this year in front of the Eugene Garvey residence, 1511 Riverdale Drive. The neighborhood party took place at 7:15 p.m. Sunday. The honorable Mr. Claus delivered gifts to the children, and provided them with a cup of warm and sweet liquid.

Committee members were Mrs. George Wales, Mrs. Eugene Steinhorst, Mrs. Robert Christensen, Mrs. William Wegel, Mrs. Peter Christensen and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Deluxe Dustpan

A pretty and practical new housekeeping item is a deluxe dustpan-and-broom set — both pieces streamlined in a two-tone combination of pastel with black. Both the pan and the broom have long handles to eliminate bending when "sweeping up."

Dress Baby for Holiday Season

When baby is the center of Christmas festivities, make sure that he looks the part by wearing holiday-gay waterproof panties. The latest editions of snowy nylon tricot panties, lined with the usual soft waterproof vinyl, come trimmed with rows of ruffles edged in Christmas red. Naturally, these "dressy" panties are just as washable as the everyday waterproofs.

To avoid embarrassment, keep a freshly-laundered coverall apron on hand in the kitchen. When the door bell rings, slip this over your muddled or work-soiled clothes.

Controversy Continues Over Dam On Wolf River in Langlade County

ANTIGO — In fact or fancy, Pearson, is nothing more than a dot on the map. But in sparsely settled Langlade County it takes its place as a community along with Post Lake, Pickerel, Bryant, Kent and a host of other logging settlements.

In Wisconsin, there is probably not one person in 10,000 who what may go down as one of the most ferocious conservation battles in state history. On one side is a group which lives in the area in question, knows it intimately and thinks it knows best what is good for this region and the people who visit it.

The other group, from outside the region, contends it knows more about the conservation values involved and what is good for the people who go there.

This is the first of a three-part series written on the proposed dam on the Wolf River in Langlade County. The series will show views and attitudes of those supporting construction of the dam.

Department Proposed Dam In fact, the Conservation Department itself had once proposed a dam at this site, there had been an old logging dam at the site until 1940, and on July 9, 1959 the Conservation Department quickly reduced by sedimentation. Since that time, Conservation Department opposition along with people who go there.

It all began because the Langlade County Board, by a 19-5 vote, proposed to construct a dam just above the A bridge near Pearson, making a flowage backing up about 9 miles to the dam on Post Lake, which presumably would enhance wildlife values, establish 1958 no opponents appeared. Experts from the Conservation Department, among them Lewis Posekany, a department limnologist and Art Oehmcke, area fisheries supervisor, contended water temperatures would be raised, trout habitat would be destroyed, 21 miles downstream, fishery would be affected 50 miles down-stream and that water depths in the flowage itself would be reduced by sedimentation. Kaukauna Approves Incinerator Proposal

Aldermen Dix, Reichel Oppose Extra $300 Monthly Cost; Council Votes 8-2

KAUKAUNA — A board of pub. owners of the present dump site works recommendation to the ran into trouble at the council council to consider a $300 per meeting Tuesday night but final-month additional dumping charge. ly was approved. 8 to 2 if an incinerator was built by. Ald Russell Dix (4th) asked why the city was being forced to enter into an agreement to pay an added $300 per month dumping charge when the city had just completed an agreement for a five-year dumping privilege. He said smoke from the dump was very bad Tuesday and felt an incinerator would not change the problem.

Ald George Simon (3rd) said the present contract calls for renegotiation of terms when the dump owners build an incinerator. He favored adopting a policy of granting a $300 per month increase for five years at this time rather than waiting until the incinerator is built to renegotiate, which could result in a much higher rate increase for the city.

Ald. Norman Meinert (3rd) argued dump owners did not "hold the city up the last time the contract was negotiated despite having the city in a position which could have forced them to pay $700 or $800 per month rather than the present $450 rate." The city would have had to accept the increase, said Meinert.

Ald. Fred Reichel (5th) stated the contract recently negotiated required the dump owners to provide service for five years, thus why bother to consider a $300 extra payment for an incinerator? Ald. William Rogers (5th) and Ald. Clarence O'Connor (2nd) said the $300 approval by the committee was not binding, merely a statement indicating the council was willing to renegotiate.

City Obligated

City Atty. Donald Green said the city was obliged to renegotiate the contract when an incinerator was built because this was explicitly clarified in the original contract. Ald. Gilbert Anderson (4th) felt the dump had been one of the major sources of complaints over the years and building of an incinerator would do much to settle the problem.

Ald. David Specht (2nd) said, land fill and incineration were the only feasible solutions to the dump problem. Land fill is impractical due to soil conditions, said Specht, and an incinerator built by the city would mean a million dollar bond issue.

Retirement of the bond issue, over an 18-year period would mean about $300,000 interest, noted Specht, and the city would still have about $20,000 annual maintenance costs and $10,000 in salaries for men to operate the incinerator. He felt accepting the offer of the dump owners was a step in the right direction. Dix and Reichel opposed the recommendation.

Rev. Schlachtenhaufen Pastor Named as Administrator of Fond du Lac Home

The Rev. Waldemar Schlachtenhaufen, Milwaukee, has accepted the position of administrator-chaplain of the Lutheran Home for Aged at Fond du Lac. He will take over his duties there by Feb. 1, according to Earl Arnold, Appleton, president of the home's board.

For the past 11 years the Rev. Mr. Schlachtenhaufen has been pastor of Ephatha Evangelical Lutheran Church in Milwaukee. He also is serving as chairman of the Wisconsin District Parish Education Committee, dean of Wisconsin District Church Workers Institute, and dean of the Milwaukee Conference Institute.

He is president of the Milwaukee Ministerium of the National Lutheran Council.

He was a member of the executive board of the Fond du Lac home from 1942 to 1951.

Vernon Bowers Wins Tilco Deer Contest 3 Men Escape Icy Plunge Into Lake

KAUKAUNA — Vernon Bowers won first place in the Tilco deer hunting contest with a 188-pound buck. Second place went to Jewell Toms with a 185-pounder and a prize for the deer with the widest rack went to Melvin Gerrits, his 155-pound animal having a rack measure 17 1/2 inches.

A prize for the smallest buck went to James Brown who shot a 70-pounder with a bow and arrow. Eleven other entries were reported.

Three Marion men narrowly escaped an icy plunge into Lac Vieux Desert, Vilas County, while ice fishing this past weekend.

The three were members of an eight-man fishing party which had gone to William Bertram's cottage near the Wisconsin-Michigan border.

Bertram, Jeff Nell and Lyle Henschel were out on the lake in a snow plane, a motor-powered vehicle Bertram had built for traveling over the ice. The three had started to move to a new location when the snow plane ran onto thin ice.

The vehicle started sinking and the three men made a hasty exit just before the craft sank into 14 feet of frigid water. Nell was driving the vehicle at the time.

Bertram says he thinks the craft can be recovered. He had built it last year and had remodeled it this fall for winter ice fishing.

Chilton Firm Has Unique Yule Gift Plan

CHILTON — A Chilton businessman has inaugurated a Christmas giving practice that he hopes will gain popularity with other businessmen in the future.

Instead of giving his regular customers the traditional novelty gifts at Christmas time, Cliff Schaub, proprietor of Schaub's Service Station, has decided to take the money he would ordinarily spend to purchase the often meaningless novelty gifts and turn it over to service institutions in the community.

Checks have been issued to Calumet Memorial Hospital's building fund and the local Campfire Girl unit.

Schaub said he felt that contributions of this type would provide for greater community good than the novelty items to his customers.

Young Men Find Similarities in Their Background

Two young Appleton men who met while sharing a hospital room following heart surgery for both at the University Hospital in Madison discovered a string of similarities in their backgrounds.

Ronald Beduhn, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Beduhn, 325 S. Mason St. and Donald Wendt Jr., 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wendt Sr., 203 S. Long Court, both are recuperating from heart surgery in the same room at the University Hospital. One had surgery Dec. 7 and the other Dec. 13.

They learned that both have been members of St. Matthew Lutheran Church for more than eight years, although they had not met before. Beduhn is a Fox Valley Lutheran High School graduate and Wendt a Hortonville High School graduate.

Other coincidences are that both are six feet one inch tall and have blond hair and blue eyes. There is only two pounds difference in their weight and one year in their ages.

Resolution Passed Expressing Sympathy To John Mann Family

A resolution expressing sympathy to the family of the late John P. Mann, former Appleton superintendent of schools, was passed by the Alpha Kappa Field Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa at Lakeland College.

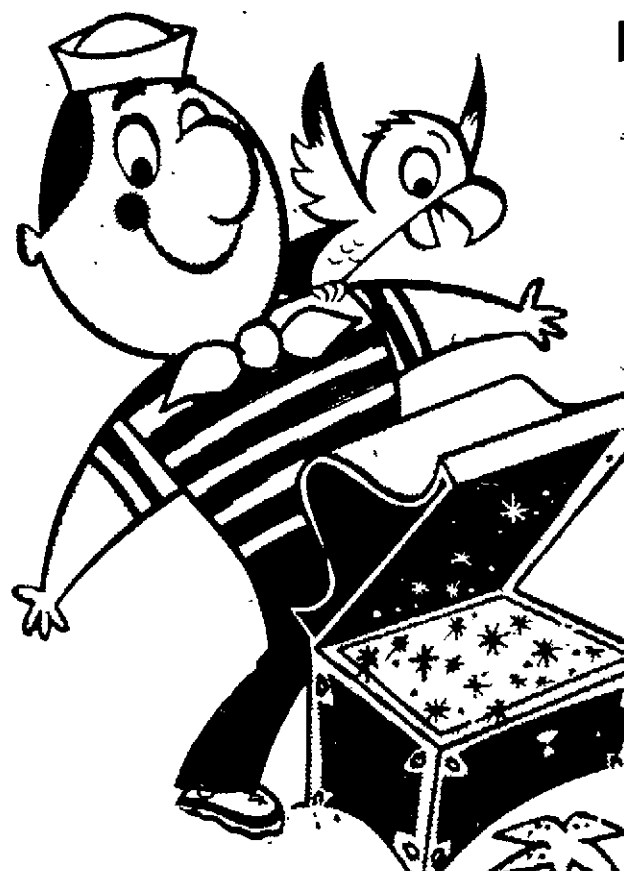

Mann was vice president of the field chapter. The resolution called him one of the chapter's "ambassadors of good will" and said he "contributed in many ways to our present leadership." It said, "John P. Mann rendered our own society and humanity a unique service in achieving even high levels of human living and meeting all responsibilities well."

Boost Pay of Few Kaukauna City Workers

Study Proposal to Increase Wages of Elected Officials

KAUKAUNA — The Kaukauna City Council Tuesday approved a 3 per cent increase for city workers not previously granted pay hikes and ordered its legislative committee to study an ordinance to increase pay of elected officials for longevity rather than change the base pay for the offices.

Ald. William Rogers (4th) voted against the ordinance because it included wage adjustments for a few elected city officials. Rogers argued city officials should not be given salary increases during their terms of office. Salaries should be adjusted just prior to a spring election so people seeking office would know their wage, he said.

An adjustment in wages should be made only if there is an injustice in pay, Rogers said. Adjustments are justified when work not normal to an office is added during a person's elected term, he continued.

Clerk Situation
He cited the $7,100 salary of the clerk. The pay is justified on the basis of the man's 20 years in office, he said. Yet, a new person completely unfamiliar to the post would expect the same type of wages, said Rogers.

Study Ordinance
At his motion aldermen voted to have the legislative committee study an ordinance allowing a man to be granted salary adjustments for experience rather than raising the salary of the office.

Council members then adopted the salary plan calling for a general 3 per cent wage increase, effective Jan. 1, for workers not previously granted pay hikes. Percentage increases went to the deputy clerk, civil defense director, city nurse, treasurer, sealer of weights and measures, assessor, health officer, assistant health officer, treatment plant operator, bridge tenders, firemen and policemen.

No increases were given the aldermen, mayor, school board members, utility commission members and fire and police commission members. Salary adjustments were granted the clerk, attorney, director of public works, police and fire chiefs, municipal justice, and city stenographer.

Mr. Magoo Hit in Role Of Scrooge

BY CYNTHIA LOWRY

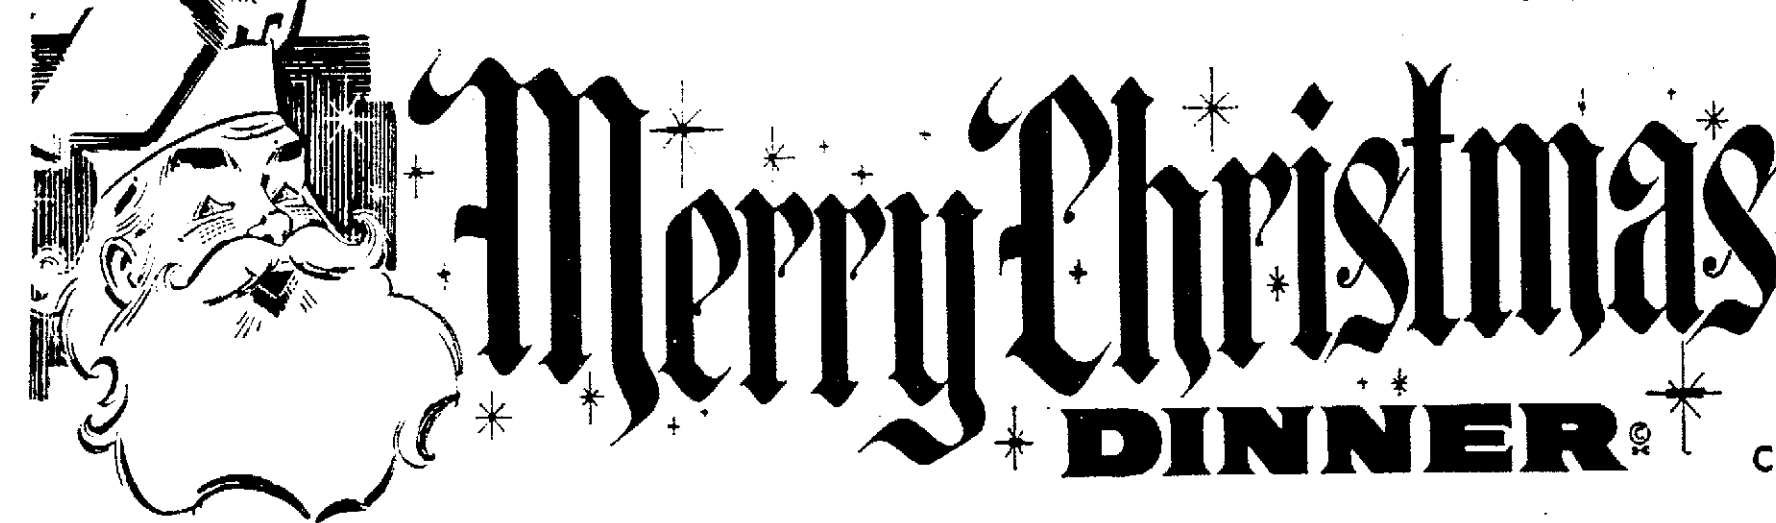

NEW YORK (AP)—If the ghost of Charles Dickens was watching television Tuesday night, it would have been interesting to catch the Victorian author's reaction to NBC's cartoon treatment of his sentimental "Christmas Carol" classic. It might have been choler-ic.

But most of us contemporary viewers must have felt that casting near-sighted, bulb-snatching Mr. Magoo as miserly, crotchety Ebenezer Scrooge was sheer inspiration. Converting the rather syrupy Tiny Tim tale into a fairy story with a musical comedy background proved a wonder-ful idea.

Children of all ages had a de-lightful time with the sly, tuneful animation. Loveable Mr. Magoo as an actor playing a part told even the smallest viewer that it was all let's pretend, so those ghosts, skeletons and graveyards were merely delightfully scary. The hour-long version ought to have its place on NBC's shelf of classics, along with "Peter Pan," and "Amahl and the Night Visitors," ready for an annual Christmas rerun.

Lyndon Johnson Has Become Cheerful Kennedy Lieutenant

Vice President Has Taken Hand In Major Administrative Fields

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—In quiet contrast to the fanfare which marked his years as a senate leader, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson is digging deeper into government than any predecessor.

With the encouragement of President Kennedy, Johnson has branched out from the relative vacuity of his constitutional duty of presiding over the Senate to take a hand in major administrative fields.

By all appearances, Johnson, the one-time whip-cracker of the Senate, has become a cheerful lieutenant to the man he once thought was too inexperienced to be president.

Kennedy has gone out of the way to reciprocate by giving Johnson on-the-job training in the executive department far beyond that to which former Vice President Richard M. Nixon pointed in his unsuccessful bid for the presidency in 1960.

The restless energy which always has driven the rangy Texan spills out now in his work as a member of the "insiders" executive committee of the National Security Council, his statutory task of presiding over the Space Advisory Council, his chairmanship of the Committee on Equal Employment Opportunities, his job as head of the Peace Corps' advisory council and his participation in Cabinet sessions.

Kennedy has sent Johnson as his representative to 22 foreign countries and tabbed him to preside over an international manpower conference.

In other days, it used to be something of a news story when a vice president was called to the White House to confer with his chief. Johnson is in and out of the place almost daily, participating in the high policy decisions. Johnson, for example, knew almost two years ago Lyndon B. Johnson stepped out of the limelight that focused on him as Senate leader and into the supporting cast as vice president in the Kennedy administration. What has he been doing? How strong is his position? Jack Bell, chief of the AP Senate staff, analyzes the situation.

most as soon as Kennedy did that the Russians had shipped offensive missiles into Cuba. The vice president is represented as having stood for vigorous counter-action.

As chairman of the Space Council, Johnson sits in a spot formerly held by Dwight D. Eisenhower insisted must be reserved for the chief executive. Kennedy got the law changed to make Johnson the head man.

The council includes the secretaries of state and defense, and the heads of the National Aeronautical and Space Administration, the Atomic Energy Commission and the Federal Aviation Agency.

The council's job is to recommend to the President the course to pursue in the space race.

As chairman of the Peace Corps' advisory council, Johnson was instrumental in getting the Peace Corps set up as a separate agency.

The vice president spends a great deal of time with the Committee on Equal Employment.

Equal Rights

Strange activity for a man from Texas who used to vote against civil rights legislation in Congress? Not at all if you look at the new Lyndon Johnson.

The vice president has become an "equals rights" man. He says he is convinced that America's own image in this respect must

Win 12 Children's Books, Five Sets to be Awarded

BY CAPPY DICK

Somewhere among the boys and girls who read this column there are five who will win a big, exciting prize for entering today's easy contest.

The prize each will receive—and five will be awarded—is a set of 12 fascinating books of fiction. The collection is the Encyclopedia Britannica "Great Books for Children."

In the set are these famous stories: "Treasure Island," "Arabian Nights," "Robinson Crusoe," "Tom Sawyer," "Alice in Wonderland," "Black Beauty," "King Arthur," "Heidi," "Tales from Shakespeare," "Robin Hood," "Andersen's Fairy Tales" and, in the 12th book, "Aesop's Fables" and "Pinocchio."

To qualify for a chance to win one of these sets of books, a contestant must first become the winner of a local prize. This will be a packet containing three preserved starfish, curious creatures that live in the ocean. These are small starfish, only about one inch across. They are perfect curios to carry around with you and exhibit to your friends.

Five packets of starfish will be awarded to the boys and girls whose contest entries are judged number one. To enter the contest, count the number of boys' heads in the picture printed above and also count the number of girls' heads. Be chambers commented: "Worst of all will win 'Great Books for Children.'"

That, perhaps, is the key to the Johnson operation: Keep your balance sheet clean, take on any job you're asked to do, but don't get tagged with empire building. If things go right, the empire will come to you.

Safety Institute for Traffic Violators Possible in 1963

Vocational School May Conduct 5-Week Class for County Court

BY RAY PY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

A traffic safety institute which will draw its students from traffic violators appearing in Outagamie County Court, Branch 2, may be placed into operation early next year if the Appleton Vocational School Board approves the plan in January.

The 10 hour long, five week institute which is sanctioned by the Wisconsin Motor Vehicle Department, received the blessing of County Judge Gustave Keller Tuesday. He met with Carl Bertram of the Vocational School, and James Morey and Carl Zutz of the Motor Vehicle Department to discuss the plan.

According to Bertram, six instructors would be available to conduct the courses. A fee of less than $4 and a booklet costing about $1 would be required of the student. State aid would finance some of the cost of the instruction.

Bertram indicated the board would favor the plan if the school would not be designated as a "punishment" or "sentence." The board disapproved a similar plan several years ago, Bertram said, on that basis.

Morey said the school has been in operation in other counties and has worked out satisfactorily. He said graduates of the institute seldom appear again in court for traffic offenses.

According to Morey, it would be the discretion of the court which violators would be sent to the school. If the violation is considered to be of such a nature that schooling would be beneficial, the court would give the violator a choice of paying the fine or attending the school.

If the violator selects the school, he would attend the course and at its completion would again be required to appear in court where the judge would review the school record. If the record is satisfactory, the violator's fine would be laid aside and he would be required to pay only court costs.

15 Per Class

According to Judge Keller, about 40 traffic violators appear in his court every week. The standard minimum fine for most violations has been $25, he said.

Judge Keller said not all violators would have the opportunity to attend the classes which would be limited to 15 persons per class.

The curriculum would consist of studying the state laws, driving habits, the nature of the traffic accident problem in the state, and causes of accidents. Morey said the instructors would be aided by films and other materials made available by the state. Also, Morey said, guest lecturers such as police officers, attorneys and insurance men would be made available.

Traffic safety schools in Wisconsin started in 1953 with the establishment of an institute in Beloit. Manitowoc and Milwaukee followed in 1954. At present there are 30 such schools in the state.

Charge Fees

The state attorney general has ruled that students attending the schools can be charged fees and that students can be compelled to attend the schools when he is charged on a city or county ordinance.

According to Morey, if the student does not attend the courses as he is instructed to do by the court, he could be cited for contempt of court. Morey said the courses are not limited to ages of drivers.

A safety school was conducted for a brief time under the direction of the late Judge Oscar Schmiede, but that school was not under the vocational school program, Judge Keller said.

Planes Play Follow Leader, Finally Land in Milwaukee

Post-Crescent News Service
GREEN BAY — A follow-the-leader drama in fog filled skies over eastern Wisconsin ended safely Tuesday night when a plane carrying four Menominee, Mich., men landed with only 15 minutes of fuel remaining.

The plane, piloted by Eric Jones, Menominee, was led to Timmerman Field, Milwaukee, after being unable to land at fog-covered fields at Menominee, Green Bay, and Oshkosh. The leader was the plane of Green Bay Packaging Co., piloted by Philip Roshong, president of Green Bay Aviation Inc.

Jones and his three companions were flying from Milwaukee to Menominee late Tuesday in a single-engine craft. They found the airport at Menominee fogged in when they arrived.

Jones then headed for Green Bay, where the ceiling was approaching 300 feet. The plane missed a runway on an attempt of the FAA control tower at a "talk down" approach to Austin Straubel Field, and the FAA alerted other planes.

Jones' plane above the ground fog was spotted by the Green Bay Packaging plane, inbound from Chicago.

Through radio and visual contact, Roshong led the other plane to Oshkosh. A landing there was ruled out by fog and the two planes headed for Timmerman Field. They arrived about 8 p. m.

Visibility was down to about one-half mile, but both planes landed without incident. Worsening fog conditions also forced the Green Bay Packaging flight to spend the night in Milwaukee.

2 Injured When Cars Collide on County Highways

Two persons were injured and sent to the Appleton Memorial Hospital today after a two-car collision at the intersection of County Trunk OO and A about 7:55 a.m.

County police said the accident occurred after one of the vehicles involved did not stop at an arterial sign which had been placed at the intersection three weeks ago.

Taken to the hospital with chest and fractured ribs was Andrew Weber, 38, route 2, New London. Weber was driving south on A and collided with a car driven by Mrs. Helen Flanagan, 41, of Green Bay, going east on OO. Mrs. Flanagan received chest and nose injuries.

After the collision, Weber's car skidded across the highway and ended in a ditch. Mrs. Flanagan said she did not see the arterial sign. The intersection is now a four-way stop, police said.

Pranges at Bay Plan for Big Expansion

Post-Crescent News Service
GREEN BAY — The H. C. Prange Co. today announced plans for a downtown store expansion project of "in excess of $1 million."

Plans were announced at a city hall press conference by Jerry Atkinson, general manager of the Prange Co. Green Bay stores. Atkinson said the expansion was pegged to city council approval of the riverfront parking ramp and the project was the "announced first step" of long - range downtown plans.

The project announced by Atkinson was the tearing down of six two-story buildings now used by the Prange Co. north of its main building and the replacing of them with a four-story building. The new structure would give the store a solid block of integrated store frontage plus a building south of Pine Street.

Hilbert Continues Study of Buses for Parochial Schools

Board Considers Adult Typing, Industrial Arts, Driving Instruction

HILBERT — The Hilbert Board of Education Monday night renewed its study of parochial school pupil transportation.

The Hilbert District was one of two in Calumet County hit by State Department of Public Instruction orders during the current school term to discontinue transporting parochial school pupils on district owned buses. Chilton was the other district affected.

When the curtailment order came in October, the board bowed to it and immediately discontinued the practice. Now, however, possibilities of reinstating the parochial transportation on a legal basis are being explored.

City Seeking Federal Aid

Appleton Requests $250,000 to Help Pay for Sewage Plant

Application of a $250,000 federal grant in conjunction with the building of a new sewage treatment plant will be made by the City of Appleton.

The board of public works noted Tuesday that construction of the $1,500,000 plant is proceeding satisfactorily and because the project is more than 25 per cent complete the time has come to request federal money.

Originally, the federal government indicated Appleton would receive financial aid for the major municipal improvement. Now the city must go after the money.

Given Go-Ahead

City Atty. Frederick Froehlich and Clerk-Comptroller Elden Broehm were authorized by the board to immediately apply for federal funds for the treatment plant.

In other action, the board authorized installation of a plaque on a wall of the new West Ramp parking facility. It will include the names of all board of public works and council safety committee members.

Acting Public Works Director Henry Crowe said he felt the name of Edwin Duszynski, former DPW director, "should definitely" be on the plaque and that he had it designed that way.

Discuss Names

However, there was some discussion as to whether the names of a former and present city attorney should be taken off the list and that of former city attorney Don Jury inserted.

"I'll have my name on the East Ramp," Froehlich said with a grin. The board went along with his wishes.

Common Council Expected to Approve $615,000 Unit; Will Provide Space for 430 Autos

BY WILLIAM C. CAREY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Final plans have been approved for a new $615,000 split-level parking structure to be erected by the City of Appleton in 1963.

Barring unforeseen developments, the common council is expected to give the green light to the project when it meets at city hall tonight.

Both the board of public works and the city planning commission have okayed the plans and specifications for the structure, the second to be constructed by the city to expand parking facilities in the downtown area.

To be officially called the East Ramp, the structure will be built on city-owned land within an area bounded roughly by Franklin Street on the north, Washington Street on the south, Morrison Street on the east and the Appleton Theater building on the west.

Backed Approval

The board and commission recommended council approval of the project during a joint meeting with representatives of W. T. Collings & Associates, Milwaukee.

Tuesday afternoon, the firm is the city's parking ramp consultant and handles the engineering.

The city's first venture into the parking structure field took place this year and was climaxed with the opening of the new $360,000, 257-car ramp at Washington and Division streets this month.

In recent years the city has purchased and assembled parcels of land in anticipation of the East Ramp construction. The land cost

The proposed new structure will be of reinforced concrete construction with a capacity of 430 cars. It will consist of 147,500 square feet with a cost of $1,440 per car. The parking facility is designed to permit construction of another story which would increase the car capacity to 670.

Mayor Clarence Mitchell explained Tuesday that the city would float a revenue bond issue

It will be presented at the Sturgeon Festival in March.

Overtime Issue Brings Committee Discussion

Policies in Radio, Traffic Departments Produces Debate in Outagamie County

A joint committee meeting involving the county's civil service and the courts and administration committees erupted in heated debate today over the merits of the traffic and radio department's overtime policies.

One member of the civil service committee indicated he had been asked by County Board Chairman Alvin Fulcer to examine overtime pay given patrolmen, radio operators and jailers.

The two committees met originally to discuss ways of granting overtime pay or equal time off for the county sheriff department's two investigators, Jack Frenzi and Jack Zuelzke.

When committee members adjourned for lunch at noon today, they had reached no conclusions.

Asked Meeting

Civil service committee members said they had been asked by the courts and administration committee to meet and discuss the investigators' overtime problem. One committeeman said the two men put in as much as 75 hours per week each with no compensation.

Before the discussion got around to the ways to solve the problem, heated discussions broke out in three corners of the room about overtime and pay policies for the two departments—the traffic police and radio, and the sheriff's department and jail.

One member of the civil service committee said he had seen overtime slips from the traffic department made out on plain scrap paper which indicated the patrolman had 13 overtime hours coming. The committeeman said there was no explanation on the paper.

Wait For Spice

Another civil service committeeman said he was not interested in pushing for improvements in the department until the new sheriff, Calvin Spice, took office. The committeeman said Spice had indicated during the November county board session discussion on the department consolidation "that he could take care of the problem."

A civil service committee spokesman also said he was concerned about the amounts of "part-time help" which the county is paying for jailers and radio operators. He said he intended to study the situation more.

The discussion indicated that a breakdown and description of the investigators' duties would be forthcoming in order for the committees to decide if the investigators should receive pay or time off for overtime.

to cover the cost of construction, which is scheduled to start in the spring and take six to seven months to complete.

The general appearance of the structure will be comparable to West Ramp, according to Collings. "The proposed structure will provide a tremendous amount of flexibility for motorists looking for a parking space," Collings said as he outlined final plans and specifications for the extensive project.

The East Ramp will have two entrances on Franklin Street and another on Washington Street. There will be two exits on Washington Street and a third on Franklin Street.

"We feel the structure will be an enhancement to that area of the city," Collings said.

All parking spaces will be metered the same as the West Ramp. The interior of two lower levels will have fluorescent light in, as well as the open deck on the top.

In preparing the plans and specifications for the structure, the consultants conferred with City Planner - Traffic Engineer with Marathon Division of America, Walter Rasmussen concerning traffic patterns in and around the proposed facility.

Unlike the present ramp, the new structure will have "green spots" with a major portion of the Washington Street borderline to be landscaped.

The East Ramp will measure 330 by 219 feet, and the open deck will have an asphalt topping instead of concrete, according to Collings.

"I think we will get the best bids on the project now," Collings told city officials.

It is planned to award construction contracts in February and start work on the project by March 1. The timetable suggested by Collings. Advertise for bids Jan. 8, open bids Feb. 5, float the bond issue sometime in February and award the contracts prior to March 1.

Concluding Tuesday's meeting, the board of public works recommended to the common council that plans and specifications be approved for the East Ramp, and the city clerk be authorized to advertise for bids.

The plan commission also approved the plans, specifications and design for the new structure.

Mail Now for Christmas

Outgoing Mail Behind Last Year But Expected to Catch Up Today

Fewer Christmas cards are being mailed at the Appleton Post Office this year than last, but the total still has reached 1,397,200 for the season (since Dec. 3).

Appleton postmaster Francis Sumnicht reported that Monday was the biggest day for outgoing mail, with 192,600 machine cancellations — most of it Christmas cards. Tuesday was close, with 176,800.

The seasonal total at this time last year was 1,548,090. Sumnicht said he expected the 1962 totals would catch up today.

But this year's figures have been down slightly for each day. Apparently fewer cards are being mailed, Sumnicht said, in a reverse of the nation-wide trend which shows an increase of about 2 per cent.

The last of 345,000 Christmas stamps are expected to be shipped up at the Appleton Post Office today or Thursday. The day and Thursday will be the big post office received an original supply of 250,000, and a second shipment of 95,000.

Tuesday was the biggest day good shape or better than ever for incoming mail, with 189,700 pieces received. Since Dec. 3, incoming mail has totaled 1,616,500, compared to 1,673,600 last year.

Over The Hump Appleton is ahead of last year on outgoing parcels (46,000, compared to 41,790 last year), but behind on incoming parcels (42,000, compared to 46,000 last year).

Apparently more gifts from businesses are being mailed this year, Sumnicht said.

The Christmas rush is over the day Monday.

He pointed out that the addition of 179 new retail accounts during 1962 played an important part in setting the sales record.

Sixteen Oshkosh B'Gosh salesmen from various parts of the country attended the meetings at Alex's Club in Oshkosh.

Salesman Jim Morgan, Fort Atkinson, was named company "Salesman of the Year."

Grease, Canvas Fire Put Out

A canvas covering a sandpile blazed when sparks from a nearby fire fell onto it.

Menasha Town Pays $37.54 Tax Rate to Appleton District

MENASHA — The tax rate for the portion of the Town of Menasha attached to the Appleton School District has been set at $37.54. Robert Jacob, town clerk, announced today. The tax is entirely for school purposes as county and state taxes as well as operational costs are paid out of town funds.

The area attached to Appleton is small, affecting only four or five pieces of property with a $52,600 assessed value and $95,300 equalized value, the clerk reported.

The portion assigned to the Appleton district must raise $385.97 to pay school expenses for the last half of 1962 and $1,193.92 for 1963 school year, a total of $1,579.89 for a $30.04 tax rate. The addition of $7.50 per $1,000 for high school tuition and transportation brings the rate to $37.54.

Kaukauna Council OKs Land Rezoning

City-Owned Ravine to be Filled With Solid Industrial Wastes

KAUKAUNA — Aldermen voted Tuesday night to rezone city-owned land in a Fifth ward ravine from residential to heavy industrial despite an objection from an adjacent property owner.

The ravine is to be filled with industrial solids by the Thilmany Pulp and Paper Co. E. W. Roban objected by letter stating, 100 acres contiguous to the rezoned area were owned by himself and others who felt use of the ravine could lessen the value of surrounding property.

He warned action would be commenced against the city and Thilmany when it was deemed the dumping program devaluated surrounding property. The rezoning ordinance was adopted unanimously without discussion.

Add To Ordinance Aldermen adopted an addition to an ordinance making it illegal for a vehicle with a capacity of more than 1-ton to be stored on the street or any premises in an "A" residential district. Defining the word "stored" the ordinance prohibits leaving of any such vehicle unattended for a period in excess of four hours.

Council members approved changes in the building code fee schedule as recommended by the legislative committee. Changes to take effect in recodification of ordinances. Building permit fees were changed to a $3 minimum plus 50 cents per 1,000 cubic foot with maximum of $500 per permit from the old method of charging simply on a cubic foot basis.

Alteration fees were raised from $1 to $3 as were wrecking permits and garage permits. Sign permit fees were raised from $1 to $2, sewer permits from $3 to $5, excavation in street fee from $5 to $10 and garage moving fees from $1 to $5. Moving a house in or out of the city will cost $10 when formerly the fee was $1 for moving a house in and $2 for moving it out. A plumbing permit fee of $1 was set up plus-night.

No Day Off For Employees

City Workers to be On Job Despite Request by Union

There will be no deviation from the regular work schedule of City of Appleton employees Monday—the day before Christmas.

This has been decided by the common council's personnel committee, which received an informal union request a few months ago to consider letting city workers off on Dec. 24.

A suggestion that city employees be permitted to check out for the day earlier than usual on Monday was ruled out by the committee because of "complications."

City hall and a good share of other employees work from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily with an hour off at noon for lunch. Those in the street-sanitation department start at 7 a.m., have 30 minutes for lunch and are through at 3:30 p.m.

"Normal Day"

"The only way to solve all problems is to have Monday a normal work day for all employees," the committee concluded.

City employees receive six paid holidays: Christmas, New Year's Day, July 4th, Labor Day, Memorial Day and Thanksgiving.

At a recent meeting the union also asked that the general 3 per cent pay increase given to all city employees by council be added to the 40 hour week with 42 1/2 half hour pay. However, Earl Kohler, president of the local, said at the earlier meeting that he was willing to drop the 3 per cent demand if the other requests could be gained.

"Goldfish Bowl"

Swanson Tuesday night contended that council and union officials "can't negotiate in a goldfish bowl."

He objected to the audience in the council chambers and to two members of the press present at the meeting. Members of the audience including the judge of the men if the meeting was held publicly.

An exchange between the city and Swanson developed when Swanson disagreed with the attorney's statement that since public funds are being negotiated the press and public have a right to sit in.

Hanson answered Swanson's charge of political pressure: "Personally I do not feel subjected to any political pressure," he said. He noted that he has not even applied for nomination party since the common council is pers.

Swanson argued that he was still affected, that he still has a part of his term in office to serve.

Several aldermen suggested that discussion end since the meeting was adjourned. They were told the meeting could not be adjourned because it was in recess at the time the motion was made.

THE BEST THING TO DO ABOUT FEARS IS FORGET THEM!
GOOD ☐ BAD ☐

7-19

Bad and often dangerously so. Sometimes a fearful person seems to have nothing to be afraid of. What this usually means is that he has nothing to be afraid of outside himself. But within himself, he may have every cause to fear. A man is not safe physically just because nothing outside himself is of any real danger. He may have some physical condition within himself that is a serious danger. The best thing to do with fears is to find out their real basis and then act accordingly.

Should you be concerned over your child's morning nausea?

Yes — No —

You are wise to the ways of children if you can spot the morning illness that disappears as soon as the school bell has rung. The youngster who refuses to eat his breakfast or is nauseated immediately afterward may be stalling to keep from going to school. If he has no fever, if he's been dragging his feet about school if his illness disappears by mid-morning, you are safe in assuming that you are dealing with a psychological rather than a physical problem. Look into the matter, talk with his teacher, and try to find out the source of the trouble.

A loud talker may be concealing inferiority feelings.

True — False —

True. A shouting voice indicates that the talker is afraid of being ignored or neglected. A mark of inferiority feelings usually. Fast talking may also mask the fear of losing your attention or it indicates a vivacious, excitable personality. Slow, precise speech is the mark of a cautious, sometimes pompous person who must have everything just so. Hesitant speech is the mark of possible lack of self-confidence and timidity. The way a person talks tells a lot — to those who listen.

Laughton Book Reveals His Love for America

'Fabulous Country' Published During Illness Full of Personal Comments

BY BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It is only fitting that Charles Laughton should come to final rest on American soil.
The latter years of the great British-born actor, who will be buried today at Forest Lawn, were marked by a love affair with his adopted land. The testament of this romance is included in a book published during his fatal illness, "The Fabulous Country."
Laughton selected his favorite writings about the United States, works of famous authors which he often read on his tours through the nation. He introduced each passage with a comment of his own.
Among his comments:
New York City — "one of the best things that can happen in New York is when friends come from England on their first trip to America—what excitement to show them their first real skyscraper, to take them to the Radio City Music Hall, particularly if it is Christmastime, for the audience there is a warm American family audience; to take them on the Staten Island ferry, to the best musical in town, to the wealth of restaurants and museums."
Liked New England
New England—"When Elsa and I were first in New York we visited New England several times. After the clangor of the city, New England gave us great comfort. We had not known in the Old World that the New World had 'antiques' or that there were charming old houses. We both remember with great pleasure Farmington, which is near Hartford, Conn., and its graceful white-painted houses. Old wooden houses were a revelation to us, as were clams, clam chowder, Boston scrod, trilliums which carpet the woodlands in spring, mountain laurel and the blazing colors in fall."
The South—"I have many memories of the South-of Chapel Hill in North Carolina where Thomas Wolfe was educated. It was spring and I have never seen such a burst of blossom. There was a backyard with cherry trees, and there were cardinal birds among the pink blossoms. I will never forget that."
California—"Elsa and I were in New York first and then Chicago and afterward in California. It was only in California that we began to look around. We got to the mountains, the lakes, the deserts and the sea, to San Francisco, the Monterey peninsula, the old missions, and started to learn about the beasts, the birds, and the flowers of the prodigal West Coast."
Polaris Sub Visited by NBC-TV Crew
BY TV SCOUT
9-10 (Channel 4-5) — Escape into the fantastic interior of the nuclear submarine George Washington for an hour on Polaris Submarine: Journal of an Undersea Voyage. Martin Agronsky and a color camera crew spent three weeks aboard the ship, and you'll see and hear how the men live and work. Some of this is incredible stuff, out of darkest science fiction. (Color)
6-30-7:30 (Channel 11) — Wagon Train is part comedy, part romance, part historical document. Jeanne Cooper plays a widow leading a band of temperance ladies west on a saloon-smashing crusade. When their horses run wild, they are saved by Simon Oakland, who plays a Sicilian wine-maker moving to California with a wagon-load of marsala wine and grape rootstocks. These two are attracted to each other, but the demon rum comes between — temporarily.
6-30-7:30 (Channel 2) — CBS Reports takes a documentary look at "Sabotage in South Africa." Most of this was filmed by a crew last spring; some bits of recent film have been added. Producer David Lowe was "tailed" by government agents and a can of film was opened by them. Nevertheless, some startling scenes were captured.
7-30-8:30 (Channel 11) — Tonight My Way offers a weeper tonight, especially if you like kids and dogs. (If you don't, bah, humbug). Leo G. Carroll gets an Irish setter, and they love each other. But, he's canine, after all, and chases the mail man and breaks up the choir rehearsal by joining in. So the animal is given to a boy (Dennis Rush) who is moving to the country.
8-9 (Channel 4-5) — Traditional and novel Christmas productions mark The Perry Como Show's annual Christmas program. Traditionally, there is a medley of carols and Perry's retelling of the Christmas story, with a live Nativity scene. There also are this, plus Kukla, Fran and Ollie and Perry's annual custom of having the children of staff and crew on hand. (Color)
9-10 (Channel 11) — Naked City again bites off more than it can chew tonight. Jack Warden and Bethel Leslie are featured as a basically decent couple who want more than they have. Warden thinks he's found a way, when a 25-year-old corpse is dug up. His method is a kind of blackmail, although he cannot see it for what it is.
9-10 (Channel 2) — The Circle Theater tells the story of the three men who broke out of Alcatraz last June. It's a good story of the patient, snail-slow way in which the three 'a' fourth "chickened out," made their preparations. But, like the true story, it leaves the ending up in the air — or, more accurately, out in the water.
10-20-12 (Channel 4-5) — Tonight's guests are Lillian Roth, Pat Harrington Jr., Steve Lawrence, Dolores Gray, Errol Garner and Henry Gibson. (Color)

Comedian Jerry Lewis plays an amateur detective in his newest movie, "It's Only Money," coming to the Appleton Theater Friday. His co-stars in the comedy spoof on private eyes are Joan O'Brien, shown in the above scene, and Jesse White.

Jerry Lewis Star of New Spoof Comedy

The many-faceted Jerry Lewis bypasses his usual producing, directing and writing chores to concentrate on acting in his newest movie, "It's Only Money," opening Friday at the Appleton Theater.

Lewis will be seen in this comedy spoof on private detectives as a lovable owner of a radio and television shop. But his heart is not in his work. An avid reader of "who-done-its," the hero has a burning ambition to be a private detective like his best friend, portrayed by actor Jesse White.

It is this ambition that gets him and his friends involved in a search for the missing heir to a fortune. The people mixed up in the action and the zany things that happen are all take-offs on the fictional "private eyes," and give Lewis a field day of operation for his antics. His role in this movie represents his most strenuous to date, calling for the comedian to be buried under a truckload of sand, thrown off a high cliff, nearly run down by an automobile, chased by a giant, remote-controlled lawn mower, dunked in the Pacific Ocean and nearly swallowed by a 450-pound deep sea bass.

Lending support to Lewis in his series of ludicrous adventures are Joan O'Brien as his romantic partner; White as the typical, trench-coated, girl-chasing detective; Jack Weston, the epitome of every film and fiction hunchman; Mae Quigley as the pixilated spinster who seeks her nephew, and Zachary Scott as the suave villain determined to keep the missing heir from being found.

Anonymous Donor Gives Lawrence Ravine Stadium

Work on Athletic Bowl East of Present Field to Begin in Spring

A long-time dream of Lawrence College athletic fans — a new athletic field and stadium in the ravine near Whiting Field — will become a reality soon.

President Douglas M. Knight announced today plans for a 5,000-seat athletic bowl, the gift of an anonymous donor.

The stadium will be sunk into the ravine just east of the present Whiting Field on the south campus. The work will be done over a period of three years, beginning in spring, 1963. At that time a drainage system will be installed for diverting a seasonal creek, bulldozing will be done and filling brought in. The extended timetable will allow for the earth to pack thoroughly before the construction of the stadium.

Plans for the bowl are now being drawn by Orison and Orison, Inc., Appleton. It is expected the stadium will be built of pre-cast concrete, with treated lumber seats fixed to it.

The north-south gridiron will be flanked by stands on the east and west. At the north end will be a building for public facilities, concessions and team rooms. No attempt will be made to duplicate a complete locker room, because Alexander Gymnasium is only a block away.

Continued Use
The present Whiting Field will continue to be used for track and field events as well as the intramural program. With the added space, it is hoped that a regulation baseball diamond will be incorporated into Lawrence's athletic facilities.

Both Arthur C. Denney and Bernard E. Heselton of the Lawrence athletic department assisted in the plans for the new bowl.

It is expected that attendance at Lawrence football games will be sharply stimulated by the more comfortable facilities, for the present Whiting Field is located on a hilltop noted for its penetrating winds. The field's wooden bleachers are not protected in any way.

The traditional Lawrence-Ripon football rivalry has frequently drawn as many as 3,000 spectators.

In addition to football contests, it will be possible for outdoor commencements and massed musical events to be held in the bowl.

The bowl in the ravine has been a dream of a number of athletic-minded friends of the college for many years. Twice the ravine area was diminished over strong protest. The location of the Whiting Court student apartments on the west crest of the ravine took land needed for the entrance; and the forced sale of land to the city of Appleton when the College Ave.

Hopes Growing For Release of 1,113 Captives

Prisoners May be Flown to Miami Before Christmas

BY GEORGE ARFELD

HAVANA (AP)—Hopes mounted today that 1,113 Bay of Pigs prisoners may be freed from Fidel Castro's prisons by Christmas in exchange for U.S. food and medicines.

New York attorney James B. Donovan led a team of negotiators in a new round of talks with Castro Tuesday night.

Large stores of donated drugs and food were being assembled near Miami, Fla., in case the exchange goes through.

Donovan, who arranged the trade of U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers for Russian spy Rudolph Abel early this year, arrived Tuesday on a third trip to Havana in his effort to effect the release of the Cubans captured in the invasion of April 1961.

With him were Alvaro Sanchez and Mrs. Virginia Betancourt, officials of the Cuban Families Committee, composed of prisoners' relatives.

May Fly to Havana
They went to the home of Mrs. Berta Barreto, another negotiator and soon after Castro summoned them.

Mrs. Barreto said the prisoners may be freed soon—"God willing."

Sources close to the negotiators said the prisoners, if freed, probably will be flown to Miami in chartered planes.

Castro demanded $62 million for their liberty but agreed later to take food and medicine instead of cash.

Havana relatives of the prisoners perked up on hearing reports from the United States of the shipment of tons of these supplies to Opa-Locka airfield near Miami.

Details of Deal
The reports included these details:

Castro demanded $23 million worth of drugs, $6 million in equipment, $9.5 million in powdered milk and $14.5 million in baby foods. He supplied long lists of the drugs wanted. This totals only $53 million at manufacturers' list prices, but Donovan said some time ago Castro could put his own value on the stocks.

It was understood the prisoners

Mona Lisa Lands In New York for Exhibition in U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—The woman with the world's most famous smile—the Mona Lisa—arrived here today to a raval welcome amid security precautions befitting the queen of the art world.

Shortly afterward, the Leonardo da Vinci painting was placed in a small, black, air-conditioned van, heavily escorted, for the trip to Washington, D.C. There, she is to be exhibited at the National Gallery of Art President Kennedy will officiate at the opening Jan. 8.

For the crossing, the painting was given a two-room first-class cabin that normally would cost the House and Senate appropriations more than $2,000, sharing it at intervals with four members of the French security police who accompanied it here as a guard.

In addition to protection provided by local police, White House press secretary Pierre Salinger announced that the painting was being given the same Secret Service protection normally reserved for a president of the United States.

Among other things, a ruling that the painting was to be required by the Internal Revenue Service that the contributions are deductible.

Argentine Guards Kill 23 After Prison Rioting

Angered Over Killings and Injuries During Attempt by 400 Convicts to Break Jail

BY FRANK N. MANITZAS

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina

(AP)—Mutinous prison guards bent on revenge for the slaying of 10 comrades went gunning for rioting convicts and killed 23 before the shooting spree in Villa de Voto penitentiary was brought under control at 4 a.m. today.

A police spokesman said 10 guards were killed and 4 critically injured when 400 convicts attempted a mass break out of the crowded prison.

After the rioters surrendered, more than 100 guards went on a rampage. Police, in announcing 23 prisoners were killed, did not give the number wounded.

6 Attempt Break
The 15 hours of rioting and gunfire in Villa de Voto's dark, damp cells and corridors finally ended about two hours after 100 guards, believed to have been most active in the vengeful retaliation, sped through the prison gates.

The rioting at Villa de Voto, where 2,100 transient prisoners and convicted criminals were being held, erupted at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday when six prisoners made a break for freedom.

They were armed with revolvers and pistols crudely assembled from smuggled parts.

20 Seized as Hostages
They moved quickly, firing on guards and seizing 20 hostages including a prison chaplain. The leaders were joined by the 400 inmates in two cell blocks and they barricaded themselves there.

Hernando Beiro, a hostage in one cell block, said the rioters told two captive guards to eat their supper and then shot them in the back.

A hostage in the other cell block said one ringleader wanted to shoot hostages but was restrained by other prisoners.

City Judge Leopoldo Insaurralde, sent to talk to prisoners at their request, returned after 15 minutes and reported the rioters were in an ugly mood and vowed to fight to the end. He said the hostages were in grave danger.

Guards Rebel
Wild shooting continued into the night, until Col. Miguel Paiva, director of penal institutes, announced at 10:20 p.m. that the hostages had been freed and "the mutiny is over."

He ordered the guards to take

Robber Gets $7,297 at Madison Supermarket
MADISON (AP)—A total of $7,297 was taken Tuesday by a lone gunman who held up the manager of a supermarket food in store and disappeared in a crowd of shoppers.

Darrell Smith, manager of the Piggly Wiggly store, told police he was alone in his office at the rear of the store when the man entered, drew a gun and demanded the money from a safe he put in a sack.

Smith said the gunman forced him to carry the money to the front door, where the gunman grabbed the money and fled.

Congo Situation Among Issues at Nassau Talks

Skybolt Missile Remains Big Issue Between U. S., Britain

BY WILLIAM L. RYAN

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan today began the first of their formal meetings of their little summit conference.

They were believed to be dealing with the possibility of a new crisis in the Congo.

The two leaders were smiling but nevertheless appeared grave as they began their session in a luxurious seaside mansion at 9:50 a.m.

Indications were that a series of top-ranking problems would be taken up quickly, including the deep British-American controversy over the future of the Skybolt missile.

Difficult Problems
The President was accompanied by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and Undersecretary of State George W. Ball. The prime minister had with him Foreign Secretary Lord Home and Defense Secretary Peter Thorneycroft.

The U.S. and British government chiefs plunged into two days of study of complex cold war problems under a cloud of gloom generated by a deep British-American controversy over the future of the Skybolt missile.

U.S. leaders reportedly feel there is a very real danger of a renewed Soviet thrust into the Congo should the crisis generated by the secession of rich Katanga Province lead to the collapse of the moderate Leopoldville government.

The British did not appear to be as concerned as their American allies about the Congo prospects. One of Kennedy's aims at this meeting in this sun-splashed British island resort was to emphasize to Macmillan U.S. views of what might be done to defend the Congo against any new Soviet attempt at penetration.

A U.N. spokesman announced Tuesday night that the United States is sending an eight-man military mission headed by Lt. Gen. Louis W. Truman, a cousin of former President Harry S. Truman, to the Congo to survey the military needs of the U.N. force there prior to the supplying of more American equipment to the U.N. troops.

The President and the prime minister met informally for an hour Tuesday afternoon, more or less in preparation for their brass-

Enforced Skybolt To be Shelved
WASHINGTON (AP)—The chairman of the House Armed Services Committee said today he expects the United States to drop the controversial Skybolt missile, but only after Britain has been given time to adjust.

Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., the chairman, indicated in an interview he does not intend to conduct a special committee investigation of whether development of Skybolt should be continued.

Light Plane Crashes at East Troy, 2 Men Hurt
EAST TROY, Wis. (AP)—A light plane stalled during take off and crashed at the East Troy airport Tuesday, injuring two men, one of them critically.

Dewald Nehs, 55, of Waukesha, a passenger, was listed in critical condition at Lakeland Hospital in Elkhorn.

Harvey Seegert, 42, of Waukesha, the pilot, also was hospitalized but his condition was not serious. The plane was owned by John B. Ward Jr. of Waukesha.

Successful Test for Submarine Missile
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Polaris A2 submarine missile, modified to carry the guidance system for the advanced A3 model, was launched on a successful 1,500-mile test flight today.

The Navy said the missile fired from a land pad, met all objectives on the early morning flight, tied up at Cape Girardeau, 40 miles upstream from Cairo.

The major goal was to check the sophisticated, lightweight Mark 2 guidance being developed for the follow-on missile.

No Early Relief

300 Barges Stranded In Mississippi River

CAIRO, Ill. (AP)—The Mississippi River channel will continue to drop for at least three more days, the U.S. Weather Bureau says, adding more woe to the already stranded 300 barges in what officials call the worst shallow water plague in recent years.

The river between Cairo and Cape Girardeau Mo. was closed because of Chicago with fuel, steel, sulphur, ranging from 8 to 12 in north grain and coal. Many barges tied up at Cape Girardeau were headed east. High in mid 30s in south-east.

An unusually dry spring led to a similar low-water problem early this year, but traffic was not halted in the Cairo area. Barges were stopped near Memphis, Tenn., however.

U. S. Army Engineer barges have attempted to keep the channels open this week, but the U.S. Weather Bureau said the river between Cairo and Cape Girardeau would continue to fall a halt in barge traffic until spring through this week.

the ringleaders back to their cells unmolested.

It was then, reports from the prison said that the guards rebelled against their orders and went on a manhunt.

Crying "We are the judges," and "We will kill them all," they invaded the cell blocks. At least four ringleaders were reported killed by a machine-gun burst.

Intermittent gunfire continued for more than four hours.

Director Paiva announced his resignation because his orders had been disobeyed.

Despite the confusion, officials said no prisoners escaped.

U. S. to Send Added Aid to U.N. in Congo

Mission Will Go To Africa After Talk With Thant
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—A high-level U.S. military mission was dispatched to U.N. headquarters today to begin carrying out a White House promise of new military equipment to beef up the U.N. force in the Congo.

A U.N. spokesman said the mission, led by Lt. Gen. Louis Truman, would go to the Congo after conferring with Secretary-General U Thant, who has warned that the U.N. will exert all pressures short of shooting to end the secession of Katanga Province.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson conferred with Thant for nearly two hours Tuesday night on the explosive Congo situation. He said the United States acted at the secretary-general's behest.

More Air Transport
Informed sources said the U.S. contribution would consist mainly of air transport equipment.

"The United States has been doing all it could for a long time to support the U.N. operation in the Congo," Stevenson told newsmen. "This request from the secretary-general for new equipment is only a further step in the program for moral support."

Stevenson said he knew nothing about possible use of U.S. troops in the Congo or about any new Soviet power bid in the divided African nation.

Enforced Courtship Brings Kidnap Charge
PALERMO, Sicily (AP)—Police say Anna Cardella, 40, considered Salvatore Sammarco a likely husband for her daughter Anna.

Mrs. Cardella invited the 18-year old boy to her home then locked him in a room with her 20-year old daughter for four days. She served them meals regularly.

Salvatore's parents notified the police when he didn't come home. The police located him and are now holding Mrs. Cardella and her daughter on a kidnapping charge.

There May Be a White Yule Yet
WISCONSIN—Cloudy through Thursday with chance of snow flurries late this afternoon, tonight and Thursday. Older in entire state tonight with low to barges last week because of Chicago with fuel, steel, sulphur, ranging from 8 to 12 in north grain and coal. Many barges tied up at Cape Girardeau were headed east. High in mid 30s in south-east.

An unusually dry spring led to a similar low-water problem early this year, but traffic was not halted in the Cairo area. Barges were stopped near Memphis, Tenn., however.

Neenah and Menasha, long-standing Mid-Eastern Conference rivals, will have double incentives for victory when they clash on the Neenah High School court Friday night.

Both teams are involved in a 4-way tie for second place and a victory is vital in any title aspirations either may have. As if this would not be incentive enough, there is always the prestige the other will take off the floor with a victory in this long rivalry.

Mid-Eastern activity is split this week as action opens tonight with New London and Kaukauna, both winless in three league starts, will meet on the Kaukauna hardwood. Other Friday night encounters, in addition to the Rocky - Bluejay clash will see Kimberly visiting Clintonville and unbeaten Two Rivers invading tough Shawano.

Average 66 Points
Neenah takes the second best offensive average in the conference into the Menasha game. The Rockets, paced by Dick Rogness and Dave Neubauer, are averaging just about 66 points per game. By way of contrast, Menasha will take the floor tied with Shawano for the loop's best defensive mark. The Jays' have limited foes to a 47-points per game mark.

Rogness and Neubauer are currently running 2-3 in the M-E scoring race with 51 and 48 points, respectively. Tom Wagner of Shawano, defending scoring champ, is leading with 61 markers in three games.

Neenah is still smarting from the 64-63 setback suffered at the hands of Menasha in sub-regional tournament play last season. The Bluejays, who had been struggling through a dismal season and had been drubbed by the Rockets on two previous occasions in regular play, rose to the occasions and upset the Rockets.

Two Rivers, which has wheeled to three straight wins, including an opening triumph over Neenah, may be walking into a hornets' nest.

Machen May Have Written End to Career

No. 1 Contender
Committed to State
Mental Hospital

FAIRFIELD, Calif. (AP)—When boxer Eddie Machen parked his car Dec. 12 and began writing a note to explain why he wanted to kill himself, he may have written the ending of his fighting career. Chances for his hope of a try in the foreseeable future at heavy-weight champion Sonny Liston's title appeared gloomy Tuesday when Machen was committed to a state hospital for the mentally ill.

The 30-year-old contender-rated No. 1 heavyweight challenger by the World Boxing Association—was committed after a brief Superior Court hearing. Napa State Hospital doctors described Machen as an "acute schizophrenic" and a "paranoid" in need of treatment and dangerous to himself and others.

At nearly the same time, Jack Urch, executive officer of the state athletic commission, said Machen's California boxing license expires Dec. 31.

"Obviously he's not going to fight before the end of this year," Urch said.

Complete Clearance
Before Machen could be issued a new license, Urch said, the athletic commission would require a complete medical clearance. "We just don't know," said Kenneth Gray, special investigator for the commission. "We don't know how these things will affect a person's boxing career."

Urch said it was the first time in California's history — to his knowledge — that a boxer had been committed to a hospital for mental health reasons.

Machen was taken to the Napa State Hospital for observation and his own protection after a state highway patrolman found him in a car parked near Vallejo. The weight champion Sonny Liston's scribed as a "farewell letter" to his wife, Charlotte, and had a loaded pistol in the car.

Machen told officers he was depressed because of financial troubles stemming from his difficulty in getting a worthwhile fight. "Everything was all wrong," officers quoted him as saying. His commitment was for an indefinite period—"until his mental well-being is restored." Doctors at the hearing would not commit themselves on how long this could be.

Dr. Roy Wagner, Napa Hospital psychiatrist, testified that Machen was depressed and quiet when he was admitted there. Since then, however, the psychiatrist said, Machen has become violent twice and knocked out two attendants.

Dr. Wagner said Machen was given heavy doses of tranquilizers. Another Napa doctor said it would be dangerous to release the boxer to a private mental institution for treatment.

Beloit Cagers Hand Lawrence Its First League Defeat, 82-73

Topple Vikes From Lead; Hendrichs,
Ungrodt Top Scoring

BY DON LEMKE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

BELOIT — A slow leak was started in the Lawrence College basketball bubble Tuesday night. Beloit, playing before a wildly enthusiastic home crowd, did the honors. The Bucs handed the Vikings an 82-73 setback, the first for Lawrence in three Mid-west Conference tests. The loss toppled the upstart Vikes from the league's top rung and left the conference with no undefeated team after three weeks of action. It was Beloit's third win against three conference losses and the Bucs' second straight win over an undefeated league team. Beloit had blasted Ripon's unblemished mark last week.

Coach Don Boya's rejuvenated Vikings led only once (17-16) in a ragged game which was dominated by the three guards, Dave Varnado and Dave Hendrichs of Beloit and Lawrence's Joel Ungrodt. Hendrichs and Ungrodt had 25 points each and Varnado had 21.

Leads Comeback
After trailing, 38-28, at half-time, Lawrence made two comebacks in the second half. The first was a Mike Clair-directed resurgence which closed a 52-38 Beloit lead to a 55-48 count. Clair made eight straight points in that spurt before Tom Moran took charge and restored the Bucs' 15-point margin.

Mitchell, Bears' Fourth Draftee, Signs With Denver

DENVER (AP) — Coach Jack Faulkner said Tuesday the Denver Broncos have signed Charles Mitchell, University of Washington halfback, for the next American Football League season.

He was 18th on the Broncos draft list and the fourth choice of the Chicago Bears of the National Football League.

He is 5-feet-11 and weighs 192. Mitchell will be an offensive back for the Broncos. He will play in the East-West Game at San Francisco Dec. 29 and also in the Hula Bowl.

The second comeback was in the final four minutes. Beloit had a seemingly safe 78-62 lead when the Vikes' Earl Hoover came alive. Hoover added a 3-point play to four straight free throws and the Beloit lead was suddenly only 78-69 with 2:29 to play.

Then Beloit started to stall and the dribbling wizardry of the two diminutive Buc guards, Hendrichs and Varnado, offset late baskets by Clair and Gary Just.

Despite a fine defensive team performance for the Vikings in the first half, two bad spurts hurt them. The first was in the opening moments when Lawrence, which hadn't played for 13 days, couldn't find the basket. Beloit quickly built up a 9-2 lead during that span before the Vikes were able to regroup.

Gradually, the spunky Vikings came back. They tied the score at 15-15 on a 3-point play by Hoover, went ahead with 10:40 in the half on a brace of free throws by

New Role Delights Ron VanderKelen

Badger Quarterback Makes
Second Trip to Rose Bowl

BY HARVEY BREUSCHER

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin's Ron VanderKelen will return to the Rose Bowl New Year's Day as a star quarterback instead of a bench warmer.

No one is more delighted with the new role than VanderKelen himself. "This time I know I'll have a chance to play, and I'll have something to do with the way things come out," said the 23-year-old senior from Green Bay, Wis.

VanderKelen was a member of the 1959 Badger football squad that met Washington in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1960.

"I didn't play it all in that one, thank goodness," he said. "We got beat 44-8 and I guess I can say I didn't have anything to do with it."

Practice Sessions
VanderKelen's service in the 1960 meeting was limited to practice sessions. Alternating with Tom Mettlich, now an assistant trainer at Wisconsin, VanderKelen quarterbacked offensive and defensive units that squared off against the Badger regulars in pregame drills.

On the day of the game, VanderKelen wasn't summoned from his position on the Wisconsin bench. "If I wasn't on the end of the bench, I was pretty close to it because there weren't many guys left after me," he said.

VanderKelen is the only Wisconsin player preparing for a second appearance in the Rose Bowl. The opportunity fell to him when a knee injury kept him out of competition during the regular 1960 season. He dropped from school and so preserved an extra year of eligibility.

VanderKelen's rise from Rose Bowl bench warmer to starting Rose Bowl quarterback parallels the story of his entire Wisconsin football career.

MSU's Saines Signs to Play For Buffalo

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—George Saines, Michigan State's All-America fullback, signed Tuesday to play with the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League, it was announced here.

Saines of Canton, Ohio, was a sixth-round draft choice of the Dallas Texans of the AFL and also the sixth-round choice of the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League.

Ralph B. Wilson Jr., owner of the Bills, said he had obtained the rights to Saines from Dallas by agreeing to give the Texans a high-draft choice of Buffalo next season.

Saines was the second member of Michigan State's team to sign with the Bills. The pro team signed its first draft choice, Dave Behrman, Dec. 6.

Wilson said it was at Behrman's wedding last week that Saines told him he was interested in playing for the Bills. The sturdy fullback said he would like to play professional football closer to his home in Canton, Ohio, than on the West Coast.

Gophers' Campbell Signed by Vikings

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP)—The Minnesota Vikings announced Tuesday the signing of Minnesota end John Campbell to a professional football contract for 1963.

Campbell, 6-foot-3, 210-pounder from Wadena, Minn., was one of the Gophers' mainstays defensively and was named to The Associated Press' All-Big Ten team this fall. He is 24 years old.

Bays Dominate Statistics but Are Not Leaders

Giants Tops on Offense, Detroit
Best Defensively

NEW YORK (AP)—The Green Bay Packers failed to lead the National Football League in either total offense or defense but dominated the final team statistics by finishing first in 11 offensive and four defensive categories.

The New York Giants, who meet the Packers in the league championship game, Dec. 30 at Yankee Stadium, showed the way in total offense. Detroit, which lost the Western crown although it was the only team to beat the Packers, led in total defense.

Green Bay piled up most first downs rushing (145), net yards rushing (2,460), average yards per rush (.47), pass completion percentage (.601) total touchdowns (53), touchdowns running (39), extra points (52) and total points (415).

Fewest Interceptions
Vince Lombardi's club also showed the way with fewest passes intercepted (13), least yards interceptions returned against (122) and most total first downs (281). The first downs set a league record, breaking the 278 set by Los Angeles in 1950.

On defense the Packers allowed the fewest points (148), the fewest first downs passing (194), the

Bame Says USC Won't Suffer Any Letdown

Trojans Want to Retain Top Rating,
Declares Linebacker

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The nation's No. 1 college football team, the University of Southern California, is not likely to have any let-down in the Rose Bowl against Wisconsin New Year's Day.

So said 20-year-old Damon Bame, the cannon-balling linebacker and an All-America, as the Trojans continued preparations to meet the No. 2 team in the country.

"We want to win this one real bad and there will be no problem getting up for it," Bame declared in answer to a question.

The query stemmed from the possibility that Coach John McKay's Trojans might relax too much after their season of no defeats nor ties in 10 games.

"We have all kinds of incentives," Bame continued. "We want to win all 11 games and retain our position as national champions, to win for Southern California."

Bays Are Relaxed After Shaking Off Title-Race Pressure

Lombardi Says Hornung Looked Good in Los Angeles Game

BY ART DALEY
Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — 'Tis the season to be jolly?

It is and it isn't for the Packers who started enjoying the Christmas holiday Tuesday — not to mention their third straight Western Division championship.

The Bays are far from jolly over their up-coming championship game against the Giants in Yankee Stadium Dec. 30. That's a real un-jolly job and started with a squad meeting this afternoon and the opening practice Thursday morning.

The Packers arrived home Monday night, and they appeared to be greatly relieved and relaxed. "A 1-Run Lead"

The championship race — particularly the last five games, was an exhausting experience for the Bays.

"It was like trying to protect a 1-run lead," Coach Vince Lombardi said, referring to the Lions who were within a game of the Packers the last three games.

But the Packers' ability to withstand all sorts of shocks — not to mention the actual games add flavor to the Packers' gaudy 13-1 record.

"The pressure to win has been hard for all of us but this was a great accomplishment by all 36 of those players. They did a fine job," Lombardi said, adding:

"You've got to hand it to them. They were under a great strain all the time."

"You don't outclass anybody in this league. It's hard going every Sunday."

Lombardi has worked wonders — miracle is a better word — with the Packers in his four seasons, dwindling the losses from five in 1959 to four in 1960, three in 1961 and just one in 1962.

The Packers came out of the Ram game in good physical condition — plus a happy note. That would be the performance of Paul Hornung. The injured option back, who has been plagued by a knee injury, flashed some of his former speed and quickness in playing briefly.

Lombardi noted that Hornung looked the best he has since before he was hurt Oct. 14 at Minneapolis.

The Bays figure to be in top condition for the champions hip game and that goes for Dan Currie, who has shaken off his knee injury.

Packers Sign Lou Rettino, Of Villanova

VILLANOVA, Pa. (AP)—The Green Bay Packers, the defending National Football League champions, have signed another of their draft choices—Lou Rettino, a 225-pound Villanova University fullback.

Rettino, the Packers' eighth choice in the recent draft of college players, said Tuesday he had signed a contract for the 1963 season.

In listing his reasons for going with the Packers, he said, "First of all, they're the greatest, and the contract they offered me was very good."

He also had been drafted by the New York Titans of the American Football League and by the Hamilton Tigercats of the Canadian League.

A dean's list student, Rettino, a native of Jersey City, N.J., averaged 4.3 yards per carry for Villanova this past season. He was 21 last Friday, the day before Villanova lost 6-0 to Oregon State in the Liberty Bowl game in Philadelphia.

Ordinance at Kaukauna Will Control Walks

Merchandise Can't Remain on Sidewalks New Law Declares

KAUKAUNA — Adoption of an ordinance which prohibits merchants from displaying items on walks ran into difficulty before the common council Tuesday night, but finally passed 6-4.

The ordinance prohibits leaving items on the walk for over three hours when in the process of receiving or delivering, outlaws outside vending machines on walks and prohibits displaying any merchandise on walks unless approval is granted by the council for sidewalk sales or special civic promotions.

Penalty will be $10 for the first violation and an additional $10 for each hour the object remains on the walk after orders to remove are given by police, mayor or an alderman.

Businessman Objects
Phil Haas, local businessman, appeared before the council objecting to the ordinance. He claimed the ordinance was unnecessary, no one had ever been hurt by merchants displaying items on the walk and it was being adopted to control one northside merchant, yet all merchants were forced to suffer.

He suggested amending the ordinance which would permit display of items on walks during normal business hours and to prohibit vending machines on walks which could solve broken bottle problems. Fourth ward Ald. Russell Dix indicated mailboxes, trees, light posts and trash containers cluttered walks so why legislate against merchants. He stated sidewalks were plenty wide and pedestrian traffic was not impeded.

Fifth ward Ald. Fred Reichel agreed with Dix stating traffic was not overly great in the city. Walks were plenty wide and display of new merchandise on walks was good advertising. William Rogers, Fifth ward alderman, felt merchants should be permitted to display items on walks during business hours and merchants should carry insurance to cover injury to persons should sidewalk obstruction cause such a claim.

Aldermen Favor
First ward Ald. Arnold Vander Loop stated, the city has had claims filed against it due to people being forced off the walk to avoid merchandise thereby resulting in injury. Clarence O'Connor, First ward alderman, reported some merchants favored the ordinance and questioned whether anyone knew the Chamber of Commerce feeling.

Gilbert Anderson, Fourth ward alderman, reported on complaints he had received and stated the police were unable to force merchants to remove merchandise since the city had no ordinance. A motion by Rogers to refer the matter back to committee failed 7-3 after David Specht, Second ward alderman, asked, "what is this, a circus?" "The legislative committee has studied this question twice, the second time for four nights," Specht then moved the ordinance be adopted and on a vote it passed.

Neenah and Menasha, long-standing Mid-Eastern Conference rivals, will have double incentives for victory when they clash on the Neenah High School court Friday night.

Both teams are involved in a 4-way tie for second place and a victory is vital in any title aspirations either may have. As if this would not be incentive enough, there is always the prestige the other will take off the floor with a victory in this long rivalry.

Mid-Eastern activity is split this week as action opens tonight with New London and Kaukauna, both winless in three league starts, will meet on the Kaukauna hardwood.

Other Friday night encounters, in addition to the Rocky - Bluejay clash will see Kimberly visiting Clintonville and unbeaten Two Rivers invading tough Shawano.

Average 66 Points

Neenah takes the second best offensive average in the conference into the Menasha game. The Rockets, paced by Dick Rogness and Dave Neubauer, are averaging just about 66 points per game. By way of contrast, Menasha will take the floor tied with Shawano for the loop's best defensive mark. The 'Jays' have limited foes to a 47-points per game mark.

Rogness and Neubauer are currently running 2-3 in the M-E scoring race with 51 and 48 points, respectively. Tom Wagner of Shawano, defending scoring champ, is leading with 61 markers in three games.

Neenah is still smarting from the 64-63 setback suffered at the hands of Menasha in sub-regional tournament play last season. The Bluejays, who had been struggling through a dismal season and had been drubbed by the Rockets on two previous occasions in regular play, rose to the occasions and upset the Rockets.

Two Rivers, which has wheeled to three straight wins, including an opening triumph over Neenah, may be walking into a hornets' nest.

Machen May Have Written End to Career

No. 1 Contender Committed to State Mental Hospital

FAIRFIELD, Calif. (AP)—When boxer Eddie Machen parked his car Dec. 12 and began writing a note to explain why he wanted to kill himself, he may have written the ending of his fighting career.

Chances for his hope of a try in the foreseeable future at heavyweight champion Sonny Liston's title appeared gloomy Tuesday when Machen was committed to a state hospital for the mentally ill.

The 30-year-old contender-rated No. 1 heavyweight challenger by the World Boxing Association—was committed after a brief Superior Court hearing.

Napa State Hospital doctors described Machen as an "acute schizophrenic" and a "paranoid" in need of treatment and dangerous to himself and others.

At nearly the same time, Jack Urch, executive officer of the state athletic commission, said Machen's California boxing license expires Dec. 31.

"Obviously he's not going to fight before the end of this year," Urch said.

Complete Clearance

Before Machen could be issued a new license, Urch said, the athletic commission would require a complete medical clearance.

"We just don't know," said Kon-

Beloit Cagers Hand Lawrence Its First League Defeat, 82-73

Topple Vikes From Lead; Hendrichs, Ungrodt Top Scoring

BY DON LEMKE

BELOIT — A slow leak was started in the Lawrence College basketball bubble Tuesday night. Beloit, playing before a wildly enthusiastic home crowd, did the honors. The Bucs handed the Vikings an 82-73 setback, the first for Lawrence in three Mid-west Conference tests. The loss toppled the upstart Vikes from the league's top rung and left the conference with no undefeated team after three weeks of action.

The conference with no undefeated team after three weeks of action. The Bucs' second straight win over an undefeated league team. Beloit had blasted Ripon's unblemished mark last week.

Coach Don Boya's rejuvenated Vikings led only once (17-16) in a ragged game which was dominated by the three guards, Dave Varnado and Dave Hendrichs of Beloit and Lawrence's Joel Ungrodt. Hendrichs and Ungrodt, had 25 points each and Varnado had 21.

Mitchell, Bears' Fourth Draftee, Signs With Denver

DENVER (AP) — Coach Jack Faulkner said Tuesday the Denver Broncos have signed Charles Mitchell, University of Washington halfback, for the next American Football League season.

He was 18th on the Broncos draft list and the fourth choice of the Chicago Bears of the National Football League.

He is 5-foot-11 and weighs 192. Mitchell will be an offensive back for the Broncos. He will play in the East-West Game at San Francisco Dec. 29 and also in the Hula Bowl.

Practice Sessions

VanderKelen's service in the 1960 meeting was limited to practice sessions. Alternating with Tom Mettlich, now an assistant trainer at Wisconsin, VanderKelen quarterbacked offensive and defensive units that squared off against the Badger regulars in pregame drills.

On the day of the game, VanderKelen wasn't summoned from his position on the Wisconsin bench.

"If I wasn't on the end of the bench, I was pretty close to it because there weren't many guys left after me," he said.

VanderKelen is the only Wisconsin player preparing for a second appearance in the Rose Bowl. The opportunity fell to him when a knee injury kept him out of competition during the regular 1960 season. He dropped from school and so preserved an extra year of eligibility.

VanderKelen's rise from Rose Bowl bench warmer to starting Rose Bowl quarterback parallels the story of his entire Wisconsin football career.

MSU's Saimes Signs to Play For Buffalo

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—George Saimes, Michigan State's All-America fullback, signed Tuesday to play with the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League, it was announced here.

Saimes of Canton, Ohio, was a sixth-round draft choice of the Dallas Texans of the AFL and also the sixth-round choice of the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League.

Ralph B. Wilson Jr., owner of the Bills, said he had obtained the rights to Saimes from Dallas by agreeing to give the Texans a high-draft choice of Buffalo next season.

Saimes was the second member of Michigan State's team to sign with the Bills. The pro team signed its first draft choice, Dave Behrman, Dec. 6.

Wilson said it was at Behrman's wedding last week that Saimes told him he was interested in playing for the Bills. The sturdy fullback said he would like to play professional football closer to his home in Canton, Ohio, than on the West Coast.

Gophers' Campbell Signed by Vikings

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP)—The Minnesota Vikings announced Tuesday the signing of Minnesota end John Campbell to a professional football contract for 1963.

Campbell, 6-foot-3, 210-pounder from Wadena, Minn., was one of the Gophers' mainstays defensively and was named to The Associated Press' All-Big Ten team this fall. He is 24 years old.
